This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

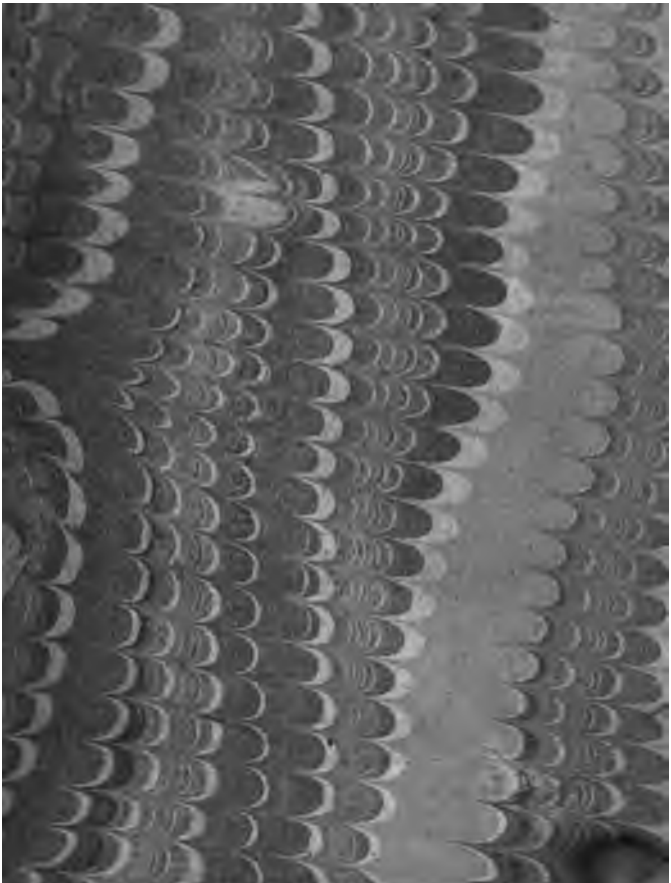
Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`



26

C. S. Gill —

SONGS OF PRAISE,

COMPOSED FROM THE

HOLY SCRIPTURES.

IN TWO PARTS.

I. On various divine Subjects.
II. Suited to the LORD's Supper.

By JOHN PEACOCK.

Ὁ λόγος τοῦ Χριστοῦ ἐνοικείτω ἐν ὑμῖν πλουσίως, ἐν πάσῃ σοφίᾳ. διδάσκοντες καὶ νουθετοῦντες ἑαυτοὺς, ψαλμοῖς καὶ ὕμνοις καὶ ᾠδαῖς πνευματικαῖς ἐν χάριτι ᾄδοντες ἐν τῇ καρδίᾳ ὑμῶν τῷ Κυρίῳ. PAUL.

LONDON:

Printed by J. W. PASHAM, BLACKFRIARS:
And Sold by VALLANCE and SIMMONS, Cheapside; W. HARRIS, St. Paul's Church-Yard; G. KEITH, in Grace-church Street; and J. MATHEWS, in the Strand. 1776.

147. g. 445.

A TABLE

To find any HYMN by the firſt Line.

A.

| | Song of Praiſe. |
|---|---|
| ALL hail the glorious Morn | 37 |
| Attend the Saviour calls | 28 |
| Awake my Soul to praiſe the Lord | 124 |

B.

| | |
|---|---|
| Be baniſh'd ev'ry murm'ring Thought | 107 |
| Be far away each gloomy Fear | 36 |
| Be Sorrow far away | 7 |
| Begin my Tongue the awful Theme | 44 |
| Behold at the divine Command | 94 |
| Behold on flying Clouds the Saviour comes | 82 |
| Behold the appointed Lamb of God | 54 |
| Behold the bleſt Diſciples met | 121 |

Behold

| | Song of Praiſe. |
|---|---|
| Behold the Day of heav'nly Mercy ſhines | 46 |
| Behold the great Redeemer's Love — | 68 |
| Behold the joyful Seaſon near — | 70 |
| Behold the Judge the Saviour comes — | 74 |
| Behold what condeſcending Love — | 33 |
| Behold what ſweet reviving Rays — | 5 |
| Bleſt Angels aid Me with your Song — | 3 |
| C. | |
| Come let our Hearts and Voices join — | 124 |
| D. | |
| Do this in Mem'ry of your Lord — | 115 |
| F. | |
| From Vanity and Pride forbear — | 93 |
| G. | |
| Grant Me all gracious God to ſhare — | 30 |
| Great God in thy moſt perfect Law — | 42 |
| Great Sun of Righteouſneſs ariſe — | 55 |
| H. | |
| Hark, the glad Sound of Goſpel Grace — | 65 |
| How amiable, how divine — | 84 |
| How cheerful ſhone the opening Skies — | 88 |
| How bleſt the Union, how divine — | 13 |
| How dreadful Man's Apoſtacy — | 29 |
| How few alas receive — | 72 |
| How hardly ſhall the Rich and Great — | 21 |
| How ſhall a mortal Tongue — | 135 |
| How ſhall our feeble Lips proclaim — | 104 |
| How ſweet the Flame of ſacred Zeal — | 63 |
| How wretched and how dark the State — | 60 |

Song of Praiſe.

I.

I am the Vine (the Saviour cries) — 92
Jeſus how rich, how wondrous was thy Love 71
Jeſus if thy redeeming Love — 59
Jeſus once crucify'd — 98
Jeſus thou Sun of Righteouſneſs — 51
Jeſus thy Love and Grace tranſcends — 105
Jeſus thy moſt adored Name — 131
In glad Remembrance of our Lord — 116
In Jeſus O what Glories meet — 52
In Jeſus who was crucify'd — 56
In Mem'ry of our dying Lord — 126
In mournful Strains our Songs record — 123
In Notes of Joy with cheerful Songs — 35
In outward Signs here We behold — 113
In vain do guilty Sinners ſtrive. — 49

L.

Let Jeſus' Love ſtill tune our Songs — 122
Let Infidels with Scorn deride — 4
Let Grief be baniſh'd from our Hearts — 79
Let others roll in ſenſual Joy — 117
Let Saints with Joy their Tribute bring 66
Lo, clad in Nature's bright Array — 111
Lo, the Prince of Glory bleeds — 123
Lo, to the Earth's remoteſt Ends — 11
Lo, what an awful Sight appears — 128

M.

My God to thee I look — 95

N.

Noah by God's ſupreme Command — 34
Not all the Treaſures Earth can boaſt — 80

Now

| | Song of Praiſe. |
|---|---|
| Now ceaſe our ſorrowful Complaints — | 106 |
| Now hear ye Saints the Call divine — | 61 |
| Now in the Face of Jeſus We — | 90 |
| Now let our Songs to Jeſus riſe — | 75 |
| Now let our Souls with Gratitude adore | 20 |
| Now let our troubled Thoughts ſubſide | 83 |
| Now let the Saviour's Name be bleſt — | 134 |
| Now let Us raiſe our joyful Eyes — | 31 |
| Now Mercy and Grace ſhines abroad | 85 |
| Now ſhines the glorious Goſpel Day — | 57 |
| Now to the Father's boundleſs Love — | 78 |
| O. | |
| O Iſrael hear with ſacred Awe — | 41 |
| O what Compaſſion, Grace and Love — | 97 |
| O what indearing Characters — | 64 |
| O, Ye that love and long to ſee — | 38 |
| O'er all thy Works eternal God — | 109 |
| Our Souls with Joy and Rev'rence hear — | 18 |
| P. | |
| Praiſe Ye the univerſal Lord — | 22 |
| Preſerve Me Lord from all my Foes — | 16 |
| S. | |
| Saints join to celebrate — | 50 |
| See Moſes by divine Command — | 109 |
| See where the mighty Saviour comes — | 6 |
| Shall thoſe from legal Bondage freed — | 53 |
| Shall We in Sin remain — | 58 |
| Should thoſe who have the Goſpel known | 69 |
| Since the Lord my Shepherd is — | 23 |
| T. | |
| The Earth is all the Lord's — | 112 |

| | Song of Praiſe. |
|---|---|
| The kind Redeemer Us invites — | 132 |
| The Love of Jeſus is our Theme — | 120 |
| The Myſtery of Godlineſs — | 47 |
| The unſeen Saviour We adore — | 118 |
| The Voice of righteous Abel's Blood — | 8 |
| Tho' not beheld by mortal Sight — | 77 |
| Thus ſaith the Lord "curſt is the Man" | 15 |
| To Abrah'm the Almighty ſaid — | 89 |
| To celebrate the Saviour's Love — | 137 |
| To cheer his Saints while here below — | 39 |
| To ſing Immanuel's Grace divine — | 119 |
| W. | |
| Wake my Heart to ſound his Praiſe — | 103 |
| We join to ſing the Saviour's Love — | 125 |
| What bright Diſplays of wondrous Grace | 114 |
| What condeſcending Grace and Love — | 1 |
| What glorious, what divine Rewards — | 73 |
| What boundleſs Love, what wondrous Grace | 25 |
| What Grace and Love divine — | 17 |
| What Joy what holy Confidence — | 76 |
| What Joy, what ever new delight — | 10 |
| What joyful Tidings greet our Ear — | 48 |
| What Pity and what wondrous Grace — | 136 |
| What Prodigies divine — | 115 |
| What rich and gracious Promiſes — | 96 |
| What Safety, Peace and ſweet Delight — | 12 |
| What ſaving Power, what Grace unknown | 87 |
| What tender Pity, Love and Care — | 101 |
| What various Miracles and Signs — | 67 |
| When all Mankind corrupt — | 108 |
| When Jeſus roſe and left the Dead — | 32 |

| | Song of Praiſe. |
|---|---|
| When Man to ſave from endleſs Woes — | 49 |
| While all thy Works almighty God — | 24 |
| While Jeſus' Love inflames our Hearts — | 138 |
| While in this mortal State We dwell — | 27 |
| While on his Croſs the Saviour hung — | 62 |
| While the Ungodly and Prophane — | 14 |
| Who e'er deſpiſed Moſes' Law — | 99 |
| Why do the Heathen vainly rage — | 2 |
| With Angels join t' adore the Name — | 129 |
| With hopeleſs Grief no longer weep — | 102 |
| With Joy let ev'ry Heart now hear — | 45 |
| With Joy We ſing the wondrous Grace — | 110 |
| With ſacred Joy Ye Saints attend — | 91 |
| Y. | |
| Ye Saints attentive Ear incline — | 9 |
| Ye Saints attend and underſtand — | 81 |
| Ye Saints behold the matchleſs Grace — | 133 |
| Ye Saints now lift your joyful Eyes — | 19 |
| Ye Saints rejoice while Ye record — | 86 |
| Ye Saints with Awe and with Delight — | 130 |
| Ye Saints with Joy and Wonder view — | 43 |
| Ye Saints with Triumph lift your Head — | 26 |

SONGS OF PRAISE.

PART I.

(Compoſed from the HOLY SCRIPTURES.)

I. Jeſus' Incarnation. Heb. ii. 16, 17, 18.

I.

WHAT condeſcending Grace and Love
Did Chriſt for Us diſplay,
Who left the glorious Worlds above,
To dwell in mortal Clay!

II.

He not th' Angelic Form aſſum'd,
Nor the celeſtial Frame:
Tho' Angels nobler Natures boaſt,
And boaſt a nobler Name.

III.

Behold, of Abrah'm's faithful Seed
The great Redeemer born;
See Him, in mortal Fleſh appear,
Our Nature to adorn!

IV.

It well the Saviour's Love became,
A human Form to wear,
That He might thus our Guilt atone,
And our Tranſgreſſions bear.

V.

Jeſus our merciful High-prieſt,
Inflam'd with love divine,
Redeem'd his People with his Blood,
And did his Life reſign.

VI.

The Pains, the Agonies, He bore,
To our Tranſgreſſions due; —
His Arm in the diſtreſſing Hour
His Saints ſhall ſuccour too.

VII.

Then to the Throne of ſov'reign Grace,
Let Us with Joy draw near,
That We may gain a rich Supply,
For all We want is there.

II. Pro-

II. Prophetically deſcribes the oppoſition rais'd againſt the Meſſiah, and his final Triumph over all his Enemies.

I.

WHY do the Heathen vainly rage?
And why in impious Plots engage?
Againſt the Lord's anointed join,
To execute their baſe Deſign?

II.

Come let us break his Bands (they ſay)
And ne'er ſubmit to own his ſway.
The God that reigns above the Skies,
Laughs at their vain Impieties.

III.

His awful Voice in Anger ſpeaks,
And Vengeance from his Preſence breaks;
His fiery Indignation burns,
And ſtraight their Counſels overturns.

IV.

" Behold, upon his royal Throne,
" Exalted ſits my only Son;
" To Him ſhall ev'ry knee ſubmit,
" And Princes bow beneath his Feet.

V.

Attentive hear the great Decree,
Jehovah ſpeaks, and it ſhall be.
" THEE for my Son, this Day, I own,
" This Day ſhall make thy Birthright know

VI.

" At thy Requeſt, the Heathen Lands
" Now ſhall ſubmit to thy Commands;
" Far as the Earth's remoteſt End,
" Thy wide Dominion ſhall extend.

VII.

" Thou with a Rod of Iron rule
" Thoſe who conteſt thy juſt Controul;
" As a frail Potter's Veſſel broke,
" Fall the proud Rebels at thy ſtroke."

VIII.

Ye Judges, and ye Kings be wiſe,
'Tis here alone your ſafety lies;
Serve the anointed Lord with Fear,
And his Commands with Rev'rence hear

IX.

O kiſs the Son—if ye withſtand
Ye periſh by his lifted Hand:
His Wrath awake, how bleſt are thoſe
Who in his Grace their Truſt repoſe!

III. The Riſen Saviour. Acts ii. 24.

I.

BLEST Angels aid Me with your Song;
To whom ſublimer Notes belong:
Your golden Harps, and Voices join,
To ſing Immanuel's Love divine.

II.

Lo, He who on the Croſs was ſlain,
High-thron'd in Glory lives again!
At once He burſt Death's fatal Bands,
In vain, the Power of Hell withſtands.

III.

With Songs of Joy addreſs his Name,
His Vict'ries, and his Love proclaim;
Sing, how He conquer'd when He fell;
And vanquiſh'd Sin, and Death, and Hell.

IV.

We in his Vict'ries ſhall partake;
He gain'd thoſe Triumphs for our ſake.
Immortal Praiſes to the Lamb,
Who Death, by his own Death o'ercame.

V.

Saints, ſhout with Joy your ris'n God;
And ſpread his boundleſs Love abroad.
Let ev'ry Heart the Saviour bleſs,
And ev'ry Tongue his Name confeſs.

IV. Chriſt pardons and heals the Man ſick the Palſey, Mark ii. 10.

I.

LET Infidels with ſcorn deride
The great Redeemer's Power:
In Him alone our Souls confide,
And Jeſus We adore.

II.

He bids the Paralytic riſe,
And Health his Words convey:
Behold, the Sick recover'd, bears
The Bed wheron He lay!

III.

His more illuſtrious Grace to ſhew,
Forgiveneſs He beſtows.
The Sinner hears the Saviour's Voice,
And full Salvation knows.

IV.

IV.

At Jeſus' Miracles and Grace,
Let Unbelief repine;
The Arm omnipotent We trace,
And own his Love divine.

V. The Goſpel the Light of the World.
John iii. 19, 20.

I.

BEHOLD, what ſweet reviving rays
The Sun of Righteouſneſs diſplays!
Before the Goſpel's heav'nly Light,
Faſt fly the gloomy ſhades of Night.

II.

He points the Road to Bliſs on high,
Immortal Bliſs beyond the Sky.
Behold, the Path, how plain, and clear!
Behold, immortal Glory near!

III.

But, tho' the Rays of Truth divine
With a reſplendent Luſtre ſhine,
From the bright Scenes of heav'nly Day,
Men turn with Scorn their Eyes away.

IV.

They not endure the glorious Light,
Painful to their diſtemper'd Sight:
In Love with Sin, in League with Hell,
They in their native Darkneſs dwell.

V.

In this, their Condemnation lies,
They dare God's richeſt Grace deſpiſe:
The Road to Death, the Sinner's chuſe,
And that which leads to Life refuſe.

VI.

But whoſo loves the Truth divine,
Will ne'er its ſacred Paths decline:
By the bleſt Rules, that Jeſus taught,
He tries each Action, Word, and Thought.

VII.

And by that ſure, unerring Teſt
Are all his Ways made manifeſt;
Joyful He walks the heav'nly Road
That leads to Happineſs and God.

III.

" And whither now I go
To You, lies not unknown:
Behold, the Path to God and Bliſs!
That Bliſs ſhall be your own.

IV.

" Nor ſhall it long delay;
Ere while to You I'll come,
And lead You on your heav'nly Way,
To your immortal Home.

V.

" Yes, I will come again,
And to myſelf receive
My Foll'wers, who with Me ſhall reign,
With Me forever live."

VIII. The Blood of ſprinkling ſpeaks better Things than that of Abel. Hebr. xii. 24.

I.

THE voice of righteous Abel's Blood
For Vengeance loudly cry'd,
Upon the Murd'rer's guilty Head,
By whom the Martyr dy'd.

II.

Jeſus, thy Blood ſpeaks better things!
Pardon, and Peace with God;
To Sinners, joyful Tidings brings;
Theſe Tidings ſpeaks aloud.

III.

While its delightful Voice we hear,
How ſweet the Accents ſound!
Thy Croſs can baniſh ev'ry Fear,
And heal Sin's deadly wound.

IV.

May Jeſus' Love, and Grace divine,
No longer be withſtood!
Now be our Hearts to Him reſign'd,
Who bought us with his Blood!

IX. Regeneration by the Word of God.

1 Peter i. 22, 23, 24.

I.

YE Saints, attentive ear incline,
Who boaſt an heav'nly Birth divine:
(Quicken'd by God's almighty Word)
To Life, and Peace, and Joy reſtor'd.

II. No

II.

Now Faith hath purify'd your Souls;
The Goſpel ev'ry Power controuls:
The Spirit's new-creating Hand
Hath bow'd your Wills to his Command.

III.

Let the Life-giving Truth impart
Its Influence to ev'ry Heart;
Its glorious Empire there maintain,
And Love, to all the Brethren reign.

IV.

Love, pure, and fervent, and unfeign'd,
Nor by Diſſimulation ſtain'd:
May the bleſt Flame with ardour glow,
And from each Word, each Action flow!

V.

Man's beſt Eſtate, is but as Graſs,
That blooms amid the flow'ry Fields:
If o'er it, one fierce Tempeſt paſs,
To ſwift decay its Verdure yields.

VI.

But lo! the ever faithful Word
Of Him, whom all his Saints adore,
Of Jeſus, our aſcended Lord
Stedfaſt remains, and ever ſure.

VII. That

VII.

That heav'nly Word the Goſpel brings
That Word, by Faith our Souls receive:
'Tis this that lends Devotion wings,
'Tis by this Word alone We live.

X. The Conſolation of Iſrael. Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

I.

WHAT Joy, what ever-new Delight
A promis'd Saviour brings!
Hence holy Job deriv'd Support,
Hence all his Comfort ſprings.

II.

"Oh that my Words were now engrav'd
In monumental Braſs!
Or on ſome faithful Record ſtood,
Till Time's laſt Minutes paſs.

III.

"I know, that my Redeemer lives,
And at ſome future Day
He will upon the Earth appear,
And there his Grace diſplay.

IV. "Yes,

IV.

" Yes, I that glorious Hour foreſee
That gives the Saviour Birth;
When He ſhall leave the World above,
And Heav'n come down to Earth.

V.

" Tho' haſt'ning to its native Duſt,
Worms may deſtroy this Frame;
Yet God my Saviour ſhall revive
And beautify the ſame.

VI.

" Then let it to the Duſt return,
And mingle with the Clod;
Yet I, ev'n from the ſilent Urn,
Shall, in my Fleſh, ſee God.

VII.

" Him, for myſelf, I ſhall behold,
With Joy, and ſweet Surprize,
While all his Glory He unfolds
To my admiring Eyes.

VIII.

" Tho' ev'ry mortal Part conſume,
And my whole Frame decay:
Yet Death, and the wide-gaping Tomb
Shall ſoon reſign their Prey.

XI. The divine Effects of the Goſpe

Acts xxvi. 18.

I.

LO! to the Earth's remoteſt Ends,
Jeſus his ſacred Goſpel ſends;
Bids his Embaſſadors declare
The joyful Tidings, far and near,

II.

"Go, to the Gentiles, and proclaim
Complete Salvation in my Name;
Enlight'ning their benighted Eyes;
That they may heav'nly Bleſſings prize.

III.

"The Day of Grace, that joyful Hour
Shall ſet them free from Satan's Power,
And from their Luſts enſlaving Chain,
To Liberty and God again.

VI.

"My Saints, who in my Name believe,
A full Remiſſion ſhall receive:
Behold them from their Guilt enlarg'd!
Behold the awful Debt diſcharg'd!

V. "

V.

" They ſhall with my Redeem'd above
Poſſeſs the Realms of Joy, and Love;
By Faith, and Faith alone in Me,
Born Heirs of Immortality.

XII. The Character and Bleſſedneſs of Chriſt's Diſciples. John x. 27, 28, 29.

I.

WHAT Safety, Peace, and ſweet Delight
His Saints from Chriſt derive!
Their heav'nly Shepherd they obey,
And in his Favor live.

II.

" My Sheep (He cries) my Voice attend,
And Joy to follow Me;
While I to them point out the Road
To Immortality.

III.

" Nor ſhall my Foll'wers e'er be loſt,
Who on my Grace rely;
To ſhield them from ſurrounding Foes,
Mine Arm is ever nigh.

IV.

" My Father will for their Relief
His guardian Care command:
Who ſhall Omnipotence reſiſt?
Or pluck them from his Hand?

V.

" Eternal Life to them I give;
The Promiſe is ſecure:
They ſtill ſhall in my Favor live,
And live for ever more.

XIII. The Believer's Fellowſhip with Chriſt. John xv. 4, 5.

I.

HOW bleſt the Union, how divine,
That Saints with Jeſus ſhare!
In ſacred Fellowſhip combin'd,
And guarded by his Care.

II.

As Branches growing from the Tree,
Thence Nouriſhment derive;
By ſweet Communion Lord with Thee
Thy faithful Foll'wers live.

III. But

III.

But if thy Grace be once conceal'd,
We Joy nor Pleaſure know;
As Branches pluckt from off the Vine,
Which dead and ſapleſs grow.

IV.

Oh, may we ſtill in Chriſt abide!
Nor e'er from Him remove!
Thus ſhall we richly be ſupply'd
With Bleſſings from above.

XIV. Chriſt's divine Miſſion prov'd by Miracles. John x. 36, 37, 38.

I.

WHILE the Ungodly and Prophane
Dare vent their ſcoffs aloud,
With Joy, we boaſt in Jeſus' Name,
And ſpread his Praiſe abroad.

II.

In all the Miracles He wrought,
His Power and Grace we ſee;
The heav'nly Doctrines which He taught
Well with his Name agree.

IV.

When Troubles riſe, or Fears oppreſs,
With overwhelming Woes,
Here they enjoy a ſacred Reſt,
A Haven of ſweet repoſe.

V.

Juſt ſo a green and verdant Plant,
Where living Springs ariſe;
Nor Verdure nor Refreſhment wants,
Still fed with new Supplies.

XVI. The Meſſiah prays for Deliverance from his Enemies, expreſſing his Confidence in God's Favor, and of his Reſurrection from the Grave. Pſal xvi.—Acts ii. 25—29.

I.

PRESERVE me Lord from all my Foes,
In Thee alone my Hopes repoſe;
How oft my Soul with Joys divine
Exulting ſings, the Lord is mine!

II. My

II.

/ Goodneſs not extends to Thee, t the kind Hand of Charity
ıy lend its ſuccours to the Saints,
) eaſe their Sorrows and Complaints.

III.

he Saints, ıh' Excellent of the Earth, ſtinguiſh'd by their heav'nly Birth,
oſt amiable in my ſight;
them is all my Soul's Delight.

IV.

heir Sorrows ſhall be multiply'd, ho turn from God their Hearts aſide.
ith ſuch Communion I'll forbear heir Sacrifices never ſhare.

V.

or I their Drink-offerings of Blood ill offer, nor preſent to God.
y Lips their Names ſhall never bear hen to thine Altar they draw near.

VI.

ıe Lord my only Portion is,
y Joy, my Hope, my Happineſs,
y Guardian, and my ſure Defence,
y Shield is his Omnipotence.

VII.

Mark'd out as by a ſacred Line,
My Lot, my Portion is divine,
And, O how pleaſant, and how fair
The bleſt Inheritance I ſhare!

VIII.

Ador'd for ever be the Lord!
Who doth ſuch Bleſſings rich afford,
And by his Spirit ſtill impart
The ſweeteſt Counſels to my Heart.

IX.

I ſet the Lord before my Face,
Regarding Him, in all my Ways;
And ſince his Power, and Grace is nea
My Heart ſhall never yield to fear.

X.

My Soul exults with ſacred Joys,
My Tongue her tuneful Powers emplo
Of thine almighty Love poſſeſt;
In Peace, and Hope, my Fleſh ſhall re

XI.

Thou ne'er thine holy One wilt leave,
To ſee Corruption in the Grave;
Nor there deſerted ſhall I lie
The Victim of Mortality.

XI

XII.

For thou, to Me, the glorious Way
Wilt, of immortal Life diſplay.
And I ſhall to thy Preſence riſe
To dwell enthron'd above the Skies.

XIII.

Where, Rivers of perpetual Joy
Increaſing flow, without alloy.
There, ſhall I from thy heav'nly Throne
Reap Bliſs eternal, and unknown.

XVII. Chriſt's Humiliation and Exaltation.

Phil. ii. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11.

I.

WHAT Grace and Love divine,
Did Jeſus manifeſt!
Oh! may the ſame celeſtial Flame
Inſpire his Foll'wers Breaſt!

II.

Tho' in the Form of God,
With Glory bright array'd:
That Glory, which He wore above,
For us aſide He laid.

III. Him-

III.

Himſelf He humbled low,
And took our mortal Frame:
The Prince of Heav'n, the Lord of Life
A Servant once became.

IV.

Obedient unto Death,
Lo! He the Croſs ſuſtains!
To free us from almighty Wrath
And everlaſting Pains.

V.

Now, on his Father's Throne
He reigns exalted high;
With Rays of heav'nly Splendor crown'd
And awful Majeſty.

VI.

At Jeſus' glorious Name,
Let ev'ry Creature bow,
Ye, that on high, his Praiſe proclaim:
And we on Earth below.

VII.

Let ev'ry Tongue confeſs
Chriſt the adored Lord;
And join to ſing his wondrous Grace
Ye Saints, with ſweet accord.

VIII.

VIII.

This Glory well He claims,
By God his Father giv'n;
To be extoll'd in higheſt Strains,
By all in Earth and Heav'n.

XVIII. The Goſpel Meſſage of Reconciliation.

2 Cor. v. 20, 21.

I.

OUR Souls with Joy and Rev'rence hear
What Chriſt's Embaſſadors declare:
Sweet are the Tidings they proclaim,
Addreſs'd in the Redeemer's Name.

II.

"Oh! be ye reconcil'd to God;
Now, Grace, and Mercy ſhines abroad:
Shines forth in God's beloved Son;
Who freely did our Guilt atone."

III.

No more, We mourn in ſad Deſpair;
See, Jeſus our Tranſgreſſions bear!
See, Juſtice fully ſatisfy'd!
When on his Croſs the Saviour dy'd.

IV. Hence,

IV.

Hence, thoſe, who long in Sin had lain,
Now, moſt complete Salvation gain,
And find Acceptance at his Throne;
Thro' Jeſus' Righteouſneſs alone.

V.

To Him ye Saints aſcribe the Praiſe;
Who full Redemption now diſplays.
Here ſov'reign Grace, and Mercy ſhine,
To cheer our Souls with Joys divine.

XIX. The Goſpel Harveſt. John iv. 3

I.

YE Saints, now lift your joyful Eyes
Behold, a glorious Proſpect riſe!
More glorious far than Nature yields:
When Verdure crowns the ſmiling Field

II.

The Fields already white appear,
To ſhew the coming Harveſt near;
Which ſhall a Scene ſo bright diſcloſe;
Where Pardon, and Salvation grows.

II.

III.

Souls throng the Goſpel to embrace,
And reap the Fruits of Joy, and Peace,
Here, Peace divine, and Grace, and Love
Shed their bleſt Influence from above.

IV.

The Seeds of Life immortal ſown
Are by theſe heav'nly Bloſſoms known;
And Saints, by ſweet Experience trace
The Wonders, of redeeming Grace.

V.

They in this Harveſt who partake
Shall ſhortly one Communion make:
And their glad Songs triumphant raiſe
In endleſs ſhouts, of Joy and Praiſe.

XX. The Works of God celebrated. Pſalm xix. 1, 2, 3.

(Proper Tune)

I.

NOW let our Souls, with Gratitude adore
The God of Wiſdom, and almighty Power!
Whoſe Word divine, all Nature did Produce,
And all Things fram'd, for Man's delightful uſe.

II. He

II.

He from dark Chaos, bid the Light a
The Sun aroſe, in his meridian Spher
See, his bright Rays and genial Influ Light, Joy, and Gladneſs o'er the W penſe.

III.

The Moon and Stars adorn the nightl
To ſhew his Glory, and his Majeſty.
Again, the Morning Sun without De
Uſhers with cheering Beams each op'n

IV.

He bids the Earth, her various Fruits
Her Fruits, with Plenty deck the feſt
The Seaſons with their richeſt Gifts al
See, each revolving Year with C crown'd!

V.

Oh! may his Mercies ev'ry Heart infl
To celebrate the great Creator's Nam
May all thy Works, to thee their Tribu
And Heav'n and Earth extol thy Praiſe.

XXI. The Difficulty of a rich Man's entering into the Kingdom of God. Luke xviii. 25—27.

I.

HOW hardly ſhall the Rich and Great
To heav'nly Bliſs attain?
Or thoſe that ſhine in Pomp and State,
In Jeſus' Kingdom reign?

II.

Far eaſier thro' a Needle's Eye
Might the huge Camel preſs;
Than they, who in their Wealth confide,
That Kingdom e'er poſſeſs.

III.

Yet tho' impoſſible with Man,
What is too hard for God?
His Pow'r ſupreme, nought can reſtrain,
Tho' Nature's ſelf withſtood.

IV.

Who rules the Seas, who calms the Wind,
And bids them rage no more;
Can bend the moſt obdurate Mind,
To worſhip and adore,

XXIII. The

XXII. The Perfections and Providence of G seen in the Works of Creation. Matt. xii. 27, 2

I.

PRAISE ye the univerſal Lord,
And be his glorious Name ador'd;
By whom Heav'n's ſtarry Hoſts were made,
And the World's deep Foundations laid.

II.

He ſpake; and ſtrait all Nature's Frame
From nothing into Being came;
The various Fruits that crown the Earth,
From Him alone deriv'd their Birth.

III.

Each ſpringing Plant and fragrant Flow'r,
Diſplays the Wonders of his Pow'r;
His boundleſs Wiſdom they proclaim,
And ſpeak the Honors of his Name.

IV.

Shining o'er all the verdant Race,
We the Creator's Glory trace;
The beauteous Lilly clad ſo fair,
Shews forth his providential Care.

V.

V.

A thouſand fragrant Plants beſide,
Blooming around in vernal Pride;
That without Thought, or Pains, or Toil,
Bright, flouriſh on their natal Soil.

VI.

Does God adorn each ſmiling Flower?
Only the Tenant of an Hour,
And deck the vegetative Race
In ſuch reſplendent Form and Grace?

VII.

Much more his Saints, his Servants ſhare,
In his paternal, gracious Care;
Safely they may in God confide,
For all they want, or wiſh beſide.

VIII.

He with all needful Good, will bleſs
The Souls that ſeek his Righteouſneſs;
And with a liberal Hand diſpenſe
The Bleſſings of his Providence.

XXIII. JEHOVAH the Shepherd of his P

(Proper Tune.)

I.

SINCE the Lord my Shepherd is,
Ne'er will I indulge to fear;
Ev'ry want He well ſupplies,
With a kind paternal Care.

II.

In ſweet Paſtures freſh and green,
Where enliv'ning Waters flow,
He conducts Me tho' unſeen;
There my Shepherd's Voice I know.

III.

And if e'er my Footſteps ſtray,
Still does He my Soul reſtore;
And direct Me in my Way,
That my Footſteps ſtray no more.

IV.

Tho' Death's dreary Vale I paſs,
Yet will I no Evil fear;
God, my Safeguard and Defence,
God, my Shepherd's with Me there.

V. T

V.

There his Arm divine ſhall guard
Me from each impending Ill:
And all needful Help afford,
For my Shepherd's with Me ſtill.

VI.

In the Preſence of my Foes,
Plenteous is my Table ſpread;
Bleſſings rich my Cup o'erflow,
And thine Oil anoints my Head.

VII.

Thus thy Goodneſs O my God!
Still attends Me all my Days;
And thine Houſe, my ſweet Abode
Shall aloud reſound thy Praiſe.

XXIV. The Heavens declare the Glory of God. Gen. i. 16, 17.

I.

WHILE all thy Works almighty God
My wondring Soul ſurveys;
My Lips would celebrate thy Name,
And ſing thy glorious Praiſe.

II.

Thy Power Heav'n's ſtately Frame diſplay'd,
And built the ſtarry Skies;
With reverential Awe and Dread,
Thy Glories ſtrike mine Eyes.

III.

Thou gav'ſt the Sun his radiant Orb,
Great Parent of the Day;
Whoſe Rays the Fields in Verdure robe,
And Flow'rs that bloom ſo gay.

IV.

Beneath his genial Influence
All Nature wears a ſmile,
And his enliv'ning Beams diſpenſe
Bleſſings to ev'ry Iſle.

V.

The Moon ſucceeds his brighter Reign,
Fair Regent of the Night;
Whoſe State a thouſand Stars maintain,
To aid her feebler Light.

VI.

All theſe each in his diff'rent Way
Thy glorious Power proclaim;
Thus they their ſilent Homage pay,
And magnify thy Name.

XXV. Be-

XXV. Believer's Adoption not fully manifeſted 'till the Appearing of Chriſt. 1 John iii. 1, 2, 3.

I.

WHAT boundleſs Love, what wondrous Grace,
On Us, the Father hath beſtow'd;
To adopt and chuſe our guilty Race,
Heirs of his Love, and Sons of God!

II.

Yet are We while on Earth unknown,
As Chriſt the Lord was once before;
While He in human Form appear'd,
How few the Saviour's Name adore.

III.

Tho' Saints are now the Sons of God;
Yet lo, it doth not yet appear,
What Joys remain for them above;
What Crowns of Glory they ſhall wear.

IV.

But when, They their Redeemer ſee
In heav'nly Majeſty array'd;
They in his Glory ſhall Partake,
They ſhall reſemble Chriſt their Head.

V.

Then in the Image of their Lord,
Shall all his Followers be dreſt;
To Happineſs divine reſtor'd,
And of immortal Joy poſſeſs'd.

VI.

Where e'er theſe Hopes delightful reign,
They both refine and change our Heart;
Free Us, from Sin's enſlaving Chain,
And Life, and Peace, and Joy impart.

XXVI. Signs of the coming of the Son of Man. Matt. xxiv. 29, 30. Luke xxi. 27.

I.

YE Saints, with Triumph lift your Head;
Behold complete Redemption nigh!
Jeſus, who ſuffer'd in your Stead,
Appears enthron'd above the Sky.

II.

With Joy let ev'ry Count'nance bloom,
And Pleaſure ſmile on ev'ry Face,
For ſee! th' almighty Saviour comes,
To bleſs the Objects of his Grace!

III. With

III.

th Awe attend the wond'rous Sign ich ſhall the great Event prepare; d mark thoſe Signatures divine,
at point the Saviour's coming near.

IV.

e Sun, and Moon now fade away, ſcur'd and loſt in endleſs Night:
· Chriſt his Glory now diſplays,
th Rays inſufferably bright.

V.

e Stars from their dim Orbits fall,
d the whole Frame of Nature ſhakes;
old, the ſov'reign Judge of all s moſt auguſt Appearance makes!

VI.

ron'd on a Cloud, He ſits ſublime, ith Majeſty and Grandeur too:
s Robes with awful Splendor ſhine;
, how refulgent to our View!

VII.

nts, when Ye his Appearance ſee,
t not the Sight your Souls diſmay;
w, dawns your glorious Liberty, your Salvation, 'tis the Day.

XXVII. An Improvement of our preſent State; Abſence from Chriſt. 2 Cor. v. 6, 7, 8, 9.

I.

WHILST in this mortal State We dwe
The Abſence of our Lord We feel;
Nor can ſo largely taſte his Love,
As Saints around his Throne above.

II.

Who freed from Sorrow, Sin, and Pain,
With Chriſt, for ever live and reign;
Enjoy his Smiles; thoſe heav'nly Rays
Jeſus high-thron'd in Bliſs diſplays.

III.

With ardent Zeal, and warm Deſire,
To Joys like theirs our Souls aſpire;
That We may gain the bleſt Abode
Of our Redeemer, and our God.

IV.

Yet if on Earth we longer ſtay,
Or quickly leave this feeble Clay;
Inſpir'd with cheerful Hopes We'll ſtrive
In Jeſus' Favor ſtill to live.

V. F

V.

For lo, before his awful Bar
Muſt the aſſembled World appear!
And ev'ry Word, and Deed, and Thought,
Shall into Judgment then be brought:

VI.

That all may hear their righteous Doom
Of Wrath, or endleſs Joys to come;
And each receive his juſt reward
Of Bliſs, or Vengeance from the Lord.

XXVIII. Chriſt's Invitation. Matt. xi. 28, 29.

I.

ATTEND, the Saviour calls;
How charming is the Sound!
Ye heavy-laden Sinners all,
In ME your Help is found.

II.

O Ye with Guilt oppreſt,
With Fears of Wrath divine;
Come and partake the promis'd Reſt:
For pard'ning Grace is mine.

III. Come

III.

Come, learn of Me ye Saints,
Your Saviour, lowly, meek,
Mine Arm your Burdens ſhall remove,
And all your Bondage break.

IV.

'Tis mine to give you Reſt,
To make the wounded whole;
To bleſs with Peace, the troubled Breaſt,
And raiſe the ſinking Soul.

V.

Who e'er my Yoke will bear
With a contented Mind;
He ſhall my richeſt Bleſſings ſhare,
And inward Pleaſure find.

XXIX. The Sinner's Miſery and Relief

Rom. iii. 23, 24, 25.

I.

HOW dreadful Man's Apoſtacy,
From his Creator God!
Sad Heirs of Wrath and Miſery,
We by Tranſgreſſion ſtood.

II.

But how ſtupendous was the Grace,
Which Jeſus taught to die!
Whoſe all-atoning Sacrifice
Can Sinner's juſtify.

III.

Ye Guilty, view the Mercy-ſeat, *
Jehovah now ordains;
Behold! Salvation moſt complete,
The Purchaſe of his Pains.

IV.

Who in the Saviour's Name believe,
Shall full Remiſſion know;
And everlaſting Life receive,
Where Joys immortal flow.

V.

Here God his Righteouſneſs diſplays,
While Truth and Mercy join;
In Chriſt with mild and lovely Rays,
All his Perfections ſhine.

* Ἱλαστήριον.

XXX. God

XXX. God all in all. Pſal. lxxiii. 25.

I.

GRANT Me all gracious God to ſhare
This Satisfaction moſt divine;
With which no Joys on Earth compare,
The Happineſs, to call Thee mine.

II.

Our Souls thy Love and Favor crave;
Might We enjoy this ſole Requeſt;
The Globe itſelf let others have,
Still We are more completely bleſt.

III.

Were we poſſeſs'd of all its Stores;
Empires and Crowns lay at our Feet;
Thy Love alone our Soul adores,
'Tis this that makes our Bliſs complete.

IV.

Oft, We inferior Joys have try'd,
The Joys, which Earth and Senſe can boaſt;
Had We no Happineſs beſide,
Alas! We were for ever loſt.

V. Earth's

V.

s brighteſt Scenes will quickly fade,
ll its empty Pleaſures cloy;
God is our Salvation made," iles are Bliſs without Alloy.

IV.

w'n or Earth We've none but Thee!
iom for Succour ſhall We call?
art our Guardian, and Defence,
God ſupreme art all in all.

[. Looking to Jeſus the Author and Finiſher of our Faith, &c. Heb. xii. 2.

I.

W let Us raiſe our joyful Eyes
Where Jeſus reigns, above the Skies:
Object of our Soul's Eſteem!
ry Heart now fix'd on HIM.

II.

im, is our Allegiance due,
aptain, and our Conqueror too;
ſs, He once endur'd the Croſs,
ng to redeem our Loſs.

III. He

III.

He bore the Pain, deſpis'd the Shame,
And dying all our Foes e'ercame!
'Twas the Redeemer's higheſt Joy
To ſave, where Sin did once deſtoy.

IV.

See, He again from Death revives!
Ye Saints rejoice, our Jeſus lives;
Behold Him leave the ſilent Tomb!
And Robes of Victory aſſume!

V.

Behold Him mount the ſhining Way
That leads to everlaſting Day!
He who for Sinners once aton'd,
At God's Right-Hand now ſits enthron'd.

VII.

Bright crown'd with Majeſty and Love,
The gracious Saviour reigns above;
His Saints their grateful Praiſes bring,
And hail Him univerſal King.

XXXII. Teach all Nations, baptizing Them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Ghoſt. Matt. xxviii. 19.

I.

WHEN Jeſus roſe and left the Dead,
To his Apoſtles thus He ſaid;
"All Pow'r to Me in Earth and Heav'n,
"Is by ſupreme Commiſſion giv'n.

II.

"Go; ſpread my Goſpel's heav'nly Light,
And all the Nations proſelyte;
Let the whole Earth the Tidings hear;
Regions and Kingdoms far and near.

III.

"To Them the great Salvation preach,
To Them my Laws and Doctrine teach;
All they who in my Name believe,
Shall everlaſting Life receive.

IV.

"The Name of the great ſacred Three,
Pronounc'd on the Baptiz'd ſhall be;
But Wrath and Condemnation lies
On thoſe who dare my Grace deſpiſe.

V. "To

V.

To all, I have commanded You,
Regard and ſtrict Obedience ſhew;
And lo, while Time itſelf ſhall laſt,
Ye ſhall my gracious Favor taſte.

XXXIII. Chriſt's gracious Regard manifeſted to little Children. Matt xix. 14. Mark x. 14. Luke xviii. 16.

I.

BEHOLD, what condeſcending Love
Jeſus on Earth diſplays;
To Babes and Sucklings He extends
The Riches of his Grace.

II.

The Parents Heart with Tranſport fill'd,
Bring their young Children near;
That They his Bleſſing may partake,
And in his Favor ſhare.

III.

See! He receives the tender Babes,
With Smiles upon his Face;
And while his Bleſſing rich deſcends,
His gracious Arms Embrace.

IV. "Forbid

IV.

" Forbid them not" whom Jeſus calls
Nor dare their Claim reſiſt;
Let None the Infant Race deſpiſe,
For Heav'n of ſuch conſiſts.

V.

They who his Kingdom not receive,
Ev'n as a little Child;
That Kingdom never ſhall enjoy,
But be from Bliſs exil'd.

XXXIV. The Preſervation of Noah in the Ark a Type of our Salvation by Chriſt. 1 Pet. iii. 21, 22.

I.

NOAH by God's ſupreme Command,
When Wrath hung o'er a guilty Land;
T' eſcape the Deluge rears an Ark;
And all his Houſhold there embark.

II.

Upborn above the ſurging Waves
Himſelf and Family He ſaves;
While all around Deſtruction reigns O'erwhelms the Hills and Vales and Plains.

III.

Behold the Ark, the appointed Sign
Of Safety from the Wrath divine;
What tho' the raging Tempeſt beat,
Here We enjoy a bleſt Retreat.

IV.

Peace and Salvation We obtain,
Becauſe for Us the Lamb was ſlain,;
Hence Conſcience, ſweet approving Voice,
Bids all our inward Powers rejoice.

V.

Baptiz'd in our Redeemer's Name,
Freedom from Sin and Guilt we claim;
Thus the baptiſmal Waters ſave,
Thus purifies th' all cleanſing Wave.

VI.

Behold, our glorious Sacrifice
From the deep Shades of Death ariſe;
See where He ſits at God's Right Hand,
The ſeat of his ſupreme Command.

VII.

Angelic Powers before Him bow,
And caſt their Crowns and Sceptres low;
Both Heav'n and Earth his Voice obey,
And own his univerſal Sway.

VIII. Wor

VIII.

'orthy is our exalted Lord
o be by Heav'n and Earth ador'd;
/orthy in Joy and Bliſs to reign,
/ho once upon the Croſs was ſlain.

XXV. Redemption by the Blood of Chriſt
Rev. v. 9.

I.

N notes of Joy, with cheerful Songs,
Ye Saints to praiſe the Lamb conſpire;
our heav'nly Harps ye Angels join,
nd wake to Extaſy the Lyre.

II.

n Earth was ne'er ſuch Grace diſplay'd, e'er ſuch ſtupendous Mercy ſhown,
he Lord of Life, and Glory dies, or Man's Trangreſſion to atone!

III.

ie crimſon Stream that from Him flow'd, ill makes his Grace the brighter ſhine;
'ho Sinners reconcil'd to God,
nd did for Us his Life reſign.

IV.

Let Love in a ſupreme Degree,
From ev'ry Heart to Jeſus riſe;
Who from the Curſe to ſet us free,
Became Himſelf our Sacrifice.

XXXVI. Fear not, I am He that liveth and was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore, &c. Rev. i. 17, 18.

I.

BE far away each gloomy Fear,
'Tis Jeſus' gracious Voice We hear;
His Voice which cheers the fainting Heart,
Can Life, and Joy, and Peace impart.

II.

"Fear not" (th' exalted Saviour cries)
"Behold I live who once was dead;
"See from the darkſome Tomb ariſe
"Jeſus, your ever living Head.

III.

"Inveſted with almighty Power,
"My Kingdom ſtands for evermore;
"The Keys of Death are in my Hand.
"And Hell ſubmits to my Command.

IV. En-

IV.

ron'd in Immortality,
the Redeemer ſits on high;
Name let Heav'n and Earth adore, ) lives and reigns for evermore!

XVII. The Reſurrection and Aſcenſion of Chriſt.

I.

LL hail the glorious Morn,
That ſaw our Saviour riſe;
h Vict'ry bright adorn'd,
l Triumph in his Eyes.
Ye Saints extol
Your ris'n Lord,
And ſing his Praiſe
With ſweet Accord.

II.

old the Lamb of God,
atoning Sacrifice,
tains the dreadful Load
Man's Iniquities.

Death, Sin, and Hell
Our cruel Foes
All vanquiſh'd fell,
When Jeſus roſe.

III.

At once the Priſon Doors,
Death's awful Gates expand;
Their Captive they reſtore,
At his ſupreme Command.
How bleſt the Hour,
(Awake our Joys)
Hell's fatal Power
Lo He deſtroys.

IV.

The Conqueror aſcends
In Triumph to the Skies;
Celeſtial Hoſts attend,
To crown his Victories.
Hark they proclaim
His glorious Name;
All Heav'n reſounds
Immanuel's Fame.

V.

Now to the Throne above
Let ev'ry Saint draw near;

here, dwells incarnate Love race ſits triumphant there.
See Mercy ſmile
Ev'n on that Throne,
Where once did Wrath
And Juſtice frown.

VI.

ligh Praiſes to the Lamb
Who offer'd up his Blood; oſannas to his Name
hat for our Ranſom ſtood.
In Notes ſublime
With Joy we ſing,
The Love Divine,
Of Chriſt our King.

XXVIII. The future Glory of Chriſt's faithful Diſciples. Matt. x. 32, 33.

I.

O Ye that love and long to ſee
Th' Appearance of the Lord;
/ith Joy attend his Promiſes
And truſt his faithful Word.

II. "All

II.

" All thoſe (the Saviour declares)
Who here my Name confeſs;
Shall moſt diſtinguiſh'd Honors ſhare,
Before my Father's Face.

III.

" When thron'd upon his Judgment Seat
The Son of Man ſhall come;
And all before his righteous Bar
Await their ſeveral Doom.

IV.

" He will his faithful Foll'wers own
While Angels ſtand around;
Th' aſſembled World ſhall then behold
His Saints with Glory crown'd.

V.

" But thoſe who have his Cauſe declin'd,
And dar'd renounce his Name,
Shall know the Terrors of his Frown,
And feel eternal Shame.

XIX. The Preſence of Chriſt. John xiv. 21, 22, 23.

I.

O cheer his Saints, while here below
Rich Promiſes from Jeſus flow; thoſe that love and keep his Word is ſpeaks the condeſcending Lord.

II.

e ſtill ſhall in my Father's Heart,
njoy with Me a filial Part;
o You my Grace I'll manifeſt,
e ſhall be with my Preſence bleſt.

III.

he Saint exclaims with ſtrange Delight,
ord wilt thou grant that bliſsful Sight;
o Us thy matchleſs Grace reveal,
et from the World thyſelf conceal.

IV.

Who e'er loves Me and keeps my Word,
hall know and taſte the bleſt Reward;
le ſhall my faithful Promiſe prove,
nd ſhare th' almighty Father's Love.

V. "My

V.

" My Preſence ſhall be with Him ſtill,
" And heav'nly Joys around diſtill;
" With Him we'll make our high Abode,
" With Him will dwell the living God.

XL. Juſtification by Faith in Chriſt. Rom. iii. 22, 23.

I.

IN vain do guilty Sinners ſtrive
T' obtain Salvation by the Law:
Conviction of each vile Offence
Is all Tranſgreſſors hence can draw.

II.

The Righteouſneſs that juſtifies,
(Which ancient Prophecy foretells)
Which Moſes' Law could never boaſt
Jeſus alone to Us reveals.

III.

He in the Goſpel's ſacred Page
Unfolds the Righteouſneſs of God;
Hence We divine Acceptance gain,
Thro' Faith in Chriſt's atoning Blood.

IV. Of

IV.

Merit infinitely wide,
· thoſe without Diſtinction free;
at in the Saviour's Name confide,
; Name ſhall their Salvation be.

V.

en let Us all his Name adore,
th Angels in ſublimeſt Strains;
d raiſe our grateful Praiſes high,
gh as his Throne, where Jeſus reign.

LI. The Sum of the moral Law. Matt. xxii. 37—40.

I.

Isr'el, hear with ſacred Awe
The great Commandment of the Law;
entively incline thine Ear,
what the Words of God declare.

II.

:h Rev'rence bow before his Throne,
ovah is the Lord alone:
o may in Might with Him compare?
in his matchleſs Glory ſhare?

III. Him

III.

Him Thou ſhalt love with all thine Heart,
Nor ever from his Love depart;
Let all the Powers of thy Soul
Yield to his righteous juſt Controul.

IV.

With Joy let ev'ry Thought unite
In God alone, as thy Delight;
And each Affection of thy Mind,
Supremely be to Him inclin'd.

V.

Would'ſt Thou Thyſelf to God approve?
Ev'n as Thyſelf thy Neighbour love;
T'inforce theſe Precepts moſt divine,
The Law and all the Prophets join.

XLII. By the Law is the Knowledge of Sin. Rom. iii. 19, 20.

I.

GREAT God, in thy moſt perfect Law
Our heinous Guilt We ſee;
This doth thine holy Image draw,
And Sin's Deformity.

II. Ho

II.

ow ſhort th' Obedience We pay
To each divine Command!
ummon'd at thy righteous Bar,
No Fleſh could ever ſtand.

III.

y Precepts all Mankind have broke:
All have thy Wrath incurr'd:
ike obnoxious to the Stroke
Of God's avenging Sword.

IV.

ay ſov'reign Mercy lend an Ear,
And graciouſly diſplay
e Triumphs of forgiving Love,
To drive our Fears away.

VI.

ow from the Riches of thy Grace
Sweet Peace and Joy begins;
lvation cheers our guilty Race,
Salvation from our Sins.

XLIII. God's Glory and Grace manifeſted in our Redemption by Chriſt. Rom. v. 8, 9, 10.

I.

YE Saints, with Joy and Wonder view
The Riches of the Father's Grace:
Behold his Grace and Juſtice too,
How bright they ſhine in Jeſus Face!

II.

Ev'n whilſt We were his Enemies,
Lo, ſov'reign Mercy on Us ſmil'd!
Jeſus became our Sacrifice,
And We to God were reconcil'd.

III.

When all expos'd, We guilty lay,
Nor Strength poſſeſs'd, nor Power to ſave;
He gave his only Son to die,
That We might full Redemption have.

IV.

Now reconcil'd, much more ſhall We
By Faith eſcape the Wrath divine:
And in ſupreme Felicity,
With our almighty Saviour reign.

V. Thro'

V.

Thro' Jeſus, We in God rejoice;
In God our Soul's ſublimeſt Joy:
And ſweet melodious Songs of Praiſe,
Shall our Eternity employ.

XLIV. The Reign of Sin and of Grace compared. Rom. v. 17—24.

I.

BEGIN my Tongue the awful Theme;
Rehearſe in ſolemn Strain
The dire Effects of ruling Sin;
'Till Grace triumphant reign.

II.

See the dread Conqueror appear,
And ſcatters Death around;
Diſeaſe, Pain, Sickneſs waiting near,
T' inflict the fatal Wound.

III.

Behold, beneath his dreadful Sway,
Mankind reſign their Breath;
At once the Summons They obey,
And Victims fall to Death.

IV. But

IV.

But lo, where Sin did once prevail,
Deſtroying all our Race;
Grace more illuſtrious triumphs now,
And reigns thro' Righteouſneſs.

V.

High-ſeated on its radiant Throne,
It rules with ſov'reign Power;
To break the Tyranny of Sin,
Till it is known no more.

VI.

Grace now to Life eternal reigns,
For Chriſt our ris'n Lord;
For Us hath endleſs Joys obtain'd,
Bliſs forfeited reſtor'd.

VII.

As by one Man's Tranſgreſſion We Death's Subjects all became;
By Jeſus' Righteouſneſs ſet free,
We Life immortal claim.

XLV.

I. The Deſign of our Lord's coming into the World. John iii. 16, 17.

I.

'ITH Joy let ev'ry Heart now hear,
The Goſpel brings Salvation near;
ıtion, O delightful Theme!
laim'd in Chriſt, the Saviour's Name.

II.

ſinners guilty and undone,
ſent his beſt beloved Son;
ı a kind Embaſſy of Peace,
ch, ſo boundleſs was his Grace!

III.

ıld he comes, not to condemn,
ſave th' apoſtate Sons of Men;
t all who in his Name believe,
everlaſting Life receive.

IV.

ſe who this wondrous Grace abuſe,
the Salvation dare refuſe;
Them almighty Wrath remains,
dooms Them to eternal Pains.

XLVI. The Day of Grace. Heb. iii. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11.

(Proper Tune.)

I.

BEHOLD the Day of heav'nly Mercy ſhines!
Who can that Seaſon of rich Grace abuſe?
Or ſhut their Eyes againſt its cheering Light?
Or the Salvation venture to refuſe?

II.

Incline your Ear and harden not your Heart,
As Iſr'el in the Deſert God provoke:
They caus'd his holy Spirit to depart,
And felt the Weight of his avenging Stroke.

III.

What mighty Signs, what Wonders had they ſeen?
New Miracles ſtill wrought before their Eyes;
Oh, how deceitful is the Power of Sin!
They both his Miracles and Grace deſpiſe.

IV.

Full forty Years, lo, they his Patience try'd;
The Patience and Forbearance of a God:
Their Unbelief his Faithfulneſs deny'd,
And drew on Them his juſt vindictive Rod.

V. To

V.

To Day attend, to Day now hear his Voice,
Nor loſe, as Iſr'el did, the promis'd Reſt;
Hear, and your Souls for ever ſhall rejoice,
O hear his Voice and be for ever bleſt.

XLVII. God manifeſt in the Fleſh. 1 Tim. iii. 6.

I.

THE Myſtery of Godlineſs
Now we in Jeſus ſee;
Lo! manifeſt in human Form
The glorious Deity!

II.

How full of Truth, how full of Grace
Is God's beloved Son!
The Father's Image here We trace
Complete in Him alone.

III.

Jeſus the heav'nly World reſigns
To dwell in mortal Clay;
Yet ſtill beneath that humble Veil
His Glory we ſurvey.

IV.

While He our feeble Nature wore
And in a Manger lay;
Bright Seraphs with harmonious Tongues,
To Him their Homage pay.

V.

With Joy they leave their high Abode
The Saviour to proclaim;
To celebrate his wondrous Love,
And his immortal Fame.

VI.

"Glory to God in higheſt Strains
Goodwill to Men on Earth"
Reſounds thro' all the heav'nly Plains
At Chriſt the Saviour's Birth.

XLVIII. Sorrow for the Death of Saints allay'd by Hope. 1 Theſſ. iv. 13, 14.

I.

WHAT joyful Tidings greet our Ear,
And ev'ry Breaſt with Tranſport cheer;
Reſounding from the ſacred Word,
To all the Followers of the Lord.

II. "No

II.

" No, longer hopeleſs and forlorn
We now o'er Saints departed mourn;
As the deſponding Sinner grieves
Whom Death of ev'ry Joy bereaves.

III.

" Since We believe the Saviour dy'd
His Love and Grace be magnify'd;
That Saviour who for Us was ſlain,
Triumphant roſe and lives again.

IV.

" His own almighty Power will keep
All thoſe who now in Jeſus ſleep;
Till dawns the bright illuſtrious Morn
Which their Revival ſhall adorn.

V.

How loud ſhall our glad Voices ſing
When God his ris'n Saints ſhall bring,
From Beds of Duſt, and ſilent Clay,
To Realms of everlaſting Day.

VI.

Our utmoſt Joy ſhall be complete
When Jeſus We in Glory meet;
Arriv'd on that delightful Shore
Where Pleaſures flow for evermore.

XLIX. Chriſt pardons the Thief upon the Croſs. Luke xxiii. 42, 43.

I.

WHEN Man to ſave from endleſs Woes
The gracious Saviour dy'd;
With HIM extended on his Croſs
Two Thieves were crucify'd.

II.

One conſcious of his dreadful Crimes
That forfeit heav'nly Joys;
To Jeſus with expiring Breath
Thus lifts his feeble Voice.

III.

" Lord with an Eye of pitying Grace
Upon a Wretch look down;
When thou thy Kingdom ſhalt poſſeſs
On thy almighty Throne.

IV.

" With royal Clemency forgive
A Sinner doom'd to die;
O let a vile Tranſgreſſor Share
The pity of thine Eye.

V. Jeſus

V.

eſus regards his humble Suit,
Accepts his fervent Pray'r;
n Him divine Compaſſion looks
And Mercy lends an Ear.

VI.

To Day (the ſuff'ring Saviour cries And calms his troubled Breaſt;)
ith Me thou ſhalt in Paradiſe.
Be number'd with the Bleſt.

L. The Death and Reſurrection of Chriſt.
2 Cor. v. 21.

I.

SAINTS join to celebrate
The Praiſes of your Lord;
ll be the great Redeemer's Name
By ev'ry Heart ador'd.

II.

We recognize his Love
Who Juſtice ſatisfy'd;
nd that He might the Curſe remove
For Us was crucify'd.

III. His

III.

His Blood our Ranſom paid
The Wrath divine He bore;
Rejoice ye Saints the Lamb once ſlain
Now lives for evermore.

LI. The Sun of Righteouſneſs. Mal. iv. 2.

I.

JESUS thou Sun of Righteouſneſs,
All glorious and divine;
Thy People with thy Preſence bleſs,
In their Aſſemblies ſhine.

II.

Thy healing Beams alone can cheer
Hearts pain'd with inward Grief;
The Soul oppreſt with Guilt and Fear
In Thee finds ſweet Relief.

III.

If thou thy Righteouſneſs diſplay
And make thy Merits known;
Sinners ſhall learn thy wondrous Grace
And Saints thy Goodneſs own.

IV. Our

IV.

ur Tongues ſhall thy redeeming Love
With ſacred Rapture tell;
id loud reſound Immanuel's praiſe,
Who ſaves from Death and Hell.

I. Yea doubtleſs and I count all Things but Loſs for the Excellency of the Knowledge of Chriſt Jeſus my Lord, &c. Phil. iii. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12.

I.

N Jeſus what rich Glories meet
To make our Happineſs complete; s here each Excellence is found re Bleſſings infinite abound.

II.

rth with its Treaſures we eſteem worthleſs Droſs compared with HIM;
id for the Saviour's Love divine
e would the World itſelf reſign.

III.

n may We but his Grace obtain,
id in his Smiles and Favour reign;
his bleſt Righteouſneſs be found,
id be with his Salvation crown'd.

IV. Ceaſe

IV.

Ceaſe, O my Soul, now ceaſe to draw
Thy Conſolations from the Law:
Look for Redemption from his Croſs
Who ſuffer'd to retrieve our Loſs.

V.

Still may I Jeſus Suff'rings know,
Hence Pardon, Peace, and Comfort flow;
Enjoy ſweet Fellowſhip with Him
That dy'd Tranſgreſſors to redeem.

VI.

May I his Reſurrection ſhare
And the bright Crown of Glory wear;
At length be number'd with the Bleſt
In Realms of everlaſting Reſt!

VII.

Tho' yet the Bliſs be unattain'd,
Nor I have to Perfection gain'd;
I'll ſtill the glorious Mark purſue
I'll keep th' immortal Crown in view.

VIII.

May I the Prize celeſtial gain
With Chriſt the aſcended Saviour reign;
At the Revival of the Juſt
Tis all my Hope, my Joy, my Truſt.

LIII. The State of Grace a State of Holineſs. Rom. vii. 1, 15, 16.

I.

SHALL Thoſe from legal Bondage freed
Who now live under Grace,
Dare to indulge unlawful Deeds,
That would our Faith diſgrace?

II.

Forbid the Thought, almighty God!
That We now dead to Sin
Should ſo affront the Saviour's Name,
To live and walk therein.

III.

His Servants We moſt juſtly are,
Whom We allegiance pay;
Whether the Yoke of Sin We wear,
Or Righteouſneſs obey.

IV.

To God belongs our higheſt Praiſe,
His Mercy be ador'd;
That from each fatal dangerous Way,
Our wand'ring Feet reſtor'd.

V. His

V.

His Spirit on our willing Hearts
The Goſpel hath impreſt;
And all its ſacred ſweet Commands
Inſcrib'd in ev'ry Breaſt.

VI.

To the fair Paths of Holineſs
Our joyful Footſteps tend;
And in immortal Bleſſedneſs,
We reap the happy End.

LIV. Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the Sins of the World. John i. 29.

I.

BEHOLD th' appointed Lamb of God
Offers Himſelf and dies!
And on the Croſs ſuſtains the Load
Of Man's Iniquities.

II.

In his amazing Love divine,
To cancel all our Guilt;
Such Grace the Saviour's Heart inclines,
His richeſt Blood is ſpilt.

III. To

III.

To bring Apoſtates near to God
He reconcilement makes;
Jeſus becomes our Sacrifice,
And ſuffers for our Sakes.

IV.

Immortal Praiſes to the Lamb
That bought Us with his Blood;
And let the great Redeemer's Name,
Be ſung by Saints aloud.

LV. Unto You that fear my Name ſhall the Sun of Righteouſneſs ariſe, with healing under his Wings. Mal. iv. 2.

I.

GREAT Sun of Righteouſneſs ariſe!
With thy ſweet Beams attract our Eyes;
Diſperſing all the Shades of Sin,
May the bright Dawn of Heav'n begin!

II.

The Light of this dark World Thou art,
Let thy bleſt Preſence ne'er depart;
If baniſh'd from thy glorious Sight,
Lord We are wrapt in endleſs Night.

III. Jeſus

III.

Jeſus our Life, while Thou art nigh,
We taſte and feel immortal Joy;
In Thee the Father We behold,
'Tis thine his Image to unfold.

IV.

Thou art the Way that leads to God,
Ne'er may We quit the heav'nly Road;
Great Shepherd guide Us leſt We ſtray,
O lead Us in thy perfect Way.

V.

Conduct Us to the Realms of Peace
Where Pain and Sin for ever ceaſe;
All perſevering in thy Strength,
'Till all in Bliſs arrive at length.

VI.

And join the bright Redeemed Race,
To praiſe the Saviour's wondrous Grace;
Who lov'd and waſh'd Us in his Blood,
That We might ever reign with God."

VI. Christ's Resurrection the Believer's Justification.

I.

N Jesus who was crucify'd Alone We glory and confide;
et ev'ry Tongue with Joy confess,
he Lord our Strength and Righteousness.

II.

or Us Redemption to obtain,
he spotless Lamb of God was slain;
aints triumph in his glorious Name,
Who by his Death our Foes o'ercame.

III.

o banish all our Griefs and Fears, or Us the great High-Priest appears;
esus that suffer'd in our Stead,
or ever lives our Cause to plead.

IV.

ehold, enthron'd at God's right Hand ur powerful Intercessor stand!
he Father's reconciled Face
ur joyful Souls with Rapture trace.

V. Who

V.

Whoe'er ſhall God's Elect condemn?
Since Chriſt that dy'd now lives again;
Nor Earth, nor Hell, can e'er remove His Saints, his Fav'rites from his Love.

LVII. The Goſpel the Power of God to Salvation. John v. 25.

I.

NOW ſhines the glorious Goſpel Day,
Which ſhall the Saviour's Power diſplay;
The matchleſs Wonders of his Grace,
In Souls redeem'd by Him We trace.

II.

He bids the Dead in Sin revive,
The Dead obey his Voice and live;
Such vital Power his Word conveys,
From Guilt and Unbelief to raiſe.

III.

His ſaving Power with Joy they own,
Triumphing in the Lord alone;
Who ſheds Salvation from above,
To ſhew the Wonders of his Love.

IV. Rais'd

IV.

ıis'd from the Depths of Guilt and Sin,
:w Hopes, new Fears, new Joys begin;
ıd all from that bleſt Goſpel riſe, hich points to Bliſs beyond the Skies.

V.

ıſte then, O haſte the glorious Day!
ıd this delightful Scene diſplay:
hen Chriſt ſhall bid the Dead revive, ıd Sinners hear his Voice and live.

VIII. Chriſtian's Obligations to Holineſs.
Rom. vi. 1.

I.

SHALL We in Sin remain?
In Treſpaſſes abound?
ıd thus abuſe the richeſt Grace
That e'er on Earth was found!

II.

Far be the impious Thought!
Jeſus our ſov'reign Lord, ho Us with his own Blood hath bought,
By Us ſhall be ador'd.

III.

Baptiz'd in Jeſus' Name,
We in his Death partake;
His Love ſhould ev'ry Heart inflame,
To ſuffer for his Sake.

IV.

His Saints to Him conform'd,
At the great riſing Morn;
All bright aſcending from their Tombs,
His Glory ſhall adorn.

V.

In Bliſs ſhall They appear
With their exalted Lord;
Each ſhall his heav'nly Image wear,
Whom They on Earth ador'd.

LIX. The Knowledge of Chriſt attended with Faith in Him. John iv. 10.

I.

JESUS, if thy redeeming Love
A faithleſs World did know;
With Joy the Goſpel They'd receive,
And Freedom from their Woe.

II. Saw

II.

w They that Excellence divine,
Which Jeſus' Foll'wers ſee;
ıickly They would their Hearts reſign,
To be poſſeſs'd by Thee.

III.

did They know the Father's Grace;
That gave his only Son;
The Gift of God," They would embrace,
And joy in Him alone.

IV.

ıuld They diſcern that Clemency
The great Redeemer bears;
ıat Sight would all their Doubts remove,
And ſilence all their Fears.

V.

the unnumber'd Benefits
Thy bounteous Hands beſtow;
:d by their Wants and Miſeries,
They at thy Throne would bow.

VI.

:ſt Saviour then thy Grace reveal!
Thy Glories bright diſplay!
t Sinners thy rich Mercy feel,
And their glad Homage pay.

LX. The Infirmity of the preſent State. John i. 5.

I.

HOW wretched and how dark the State
In which while here below We dwell!
'Till Chriſt by his enlight'ning Grace,
To Us the Path of Life reveal.

II.

The moral World invelop'd lies
Beneath the gloomy Shades of Night;
What Miſts of Error cloud our Eyes,
If HE withdraw his heav'nly Light!

III.

Ardent We ſeek to know thy Will,
And thy myſterious Ways to trace;
Darkneſs thy Preſence Lord conceals,
And veils from Us thy glorious Face.

IV.

When, when ſhall this imperfect State
Of Weakneſs, Frailty, and of Sin,
Succeed to thy unclouded Light,
And everlaſting Day begin?

V.

ſhed on Us a cheering Beam,
ay from thy eternal Throne;
nake thyſelf the wondrous Theme ll our Meditations known!

VI.

raiſe our Souls to thine Abode,
: We thy Glories may ſurvey;
: Sight ſhall ev'ry Miſt diſpel, introduce celeſtial Day.

VII.

: glorious Sight our Hearts ſhall fill ı Exſtacy unknown before:
red with Seraphic Zeal,
ll humbly at thy Throne adore.

VIII.

ı all the bleſt Angelic Throng, ıning thy ſacred Praiſes high;
ll in melodious Concert join,
ɔ' Ages of Eternity.

LXI. The Bleſſedneſs of Thoſe that die in the Lord. Rev. xiv. 13.

I.

NOW hear Ye Saints the call divine,
Attentively your Hearts incline;
And liſten to the heav'nly Voice,
That calms your Woes, revives your Joys.

II.

"Thrice bleſſed are thoſe holy Dead
That ſleep in Chriſt, their living Head;
Their Labors finiſh'd on the Earth,
Eternal Joys begin their Birth.

III.

"Thus doth the Spirit now proclaim
To all the Foll'wers of the Lamb:
Henceforth They from their Labors reſt,
Henceforth are They for ever bleſt.

IV.

"Their mournful Lips no more complain
Of racking Grief or waſting Pain;
Lo, They enjoy a ſweet Releaſe!
And taſte and feel immortal Peace.

V. "A

V.

nguiſh, and Pain, and Sighs are o'er;
's from their Cheek, now flow no more:
.r Suff'rings and their faithful Deeds,
ortal Life and Joy ſucceeds.

VI.

ıeir Works, their Labors, and their Love,
ɔw the Saints to Worlds above;
from their kind all-gracious Lord,
t an unſpeakable Reward.

II. Chriſt prays for his Murderers. Luke xxiii. 34.

I.

WHILE on his Croſs the Saviour hung,
By impious Hands nail'd to the Tree;
at Words of Grace dropt from his Tongue,
Heart o'erflow'd with Clemency.

II.

ıer, forgive their Guilt (He cries)
s, They know not what they do;
· let thy Wrath and Vengeance riſe,
: vile Offenders to purſue.

III. He

III.

He for Tranſgreſſors interceeds,
E'en with his laſt expiring Breath;
For Thoſe by whom He groans and bleeds
In Torture, Agonies, and Death.

IV.

"Forgive!" the kind Redeemer prays,
How ſweetly ſounds the melting ſtrain!
While He his Life a Ranſom pays,
He cannot interceed in vain.

V.

Lo, now the Saviour reigns on high,
And ſheds from his moſt gracious Throne,
On Thoſe for whom He deign'd to die,
The Bleſſings of Salvation down.

LXIII. The conſtraining Influence of Chri Love. 2 Cor. v. 14, 15.

I.

HOW ſweet the Flame of ſacred Zeal,
That Jeſus' Name inſpires!
That animates the Saints below,
And all the heav'nly Choirs.

II. 1

II.

is wondrous Love each Heart conſtrains,
And bears our Souls away;
pleaſing Influence We own,
And joyfully obey.

III.

e where extended on the Tree,
He bleeds, and groans, and dies!
ius Jeſus takes our Guilt away,
By his own Sacrifice.

IV.

e dies the Guilty to redeem,
Th' inſlaved to diſcharge;
om the tyrannic Pow'r of Sin,
To ſet our Souls at large.

V.

e dies a Ranſom for Us all,
And bears the Penalty;
ſtice no more for Vengeance calls;
By Jeſus now ſet free.

VI.

ence to Ourſelves no more We live,
Devoted unto Him,
ho our Iniquities endure,
Tranſgreſſors to redeem.

LXIV. Chriſt

LXIV. Chriſt our Brother. Matt. xii. 49, 5

I.

O What indearing Characters
To Us the kind Redeemer bears!
With ſweet Delight his Foll'wers trace
The matchleſs Wonders of his Grace.

II.

With Condeſcenſion in his Eyes,
"Behold! my Brethren dear (He cries)
Who Joy with Ardor to fulfil
The Dictates of my Father's Will."

III.

Theſe are the Men, and They alone,
Whom Chriſt will for his Kindred own;
Nor ever to his Saints ſuſtain
A Brother's ſacred Name in vain.

IV.

Jeſus! may this rich Grace of thine,
Our willing Hearts and Souls incline;
T'obey our heav'nly Father's Will,
And reign in thy Affection ſtill.

V. "If the Goſpel be hid, it is hid to them that are loſt. 1 Cor. iv. 7, 8, 9.

I.

ARK the glad Sound of Goſpel Grace,
Proclaiming Pardon, Life and Peace;
trembling Conſcience knows its Voice,
l all its inward Pow'rs rejoice.

II.

idden from the Sinners Eyes,
Goſpel of Salvation lies;
vnward they ruſh to Hell's dark Coaſt,
Mis'ry and Deſtruction loſt.

III.

n in Chains of Darkneſs bends ir captive, Sin-enſlaved Minds;
Truth divine its cheering Ray their benighted Souls diſplay.

IV.

God that bids the orient Light
ıe from the gloomy Shades of Night;
h his almighty Power aſſume, pierce the Mind's far deeper Gloom.

V. Now

V.

Now they behold his richeſt Grace,
And Mercy ſhine in Jeſus' Face;
Tranſported at the glorious Sight,
They triumph with ſupreme Delight.

LXVI. The Death, Reſurrection and Exaltation of Chriſt. Acts ii. 24.—31.

I.

LET Saints with Joy their Tribute bring
To Chriſt their Saviour, Lord and King;
With one accord conſpire to praiſe
The Lamb of God in ſacred Lays.

II.

Proclaim the Wonders He hath done
Who once reſign'd his heav'nly Throne;
Sing the rich Grace which he diſplay'd,
When his own Life for Us He paid.

III.

See Juſtice by his Death appeas'd,
And Man from Wrath divine releas'd;
Yet over Him the darkſom Grave
No Power cou'd boaſt nor Empire have.

IV. Our

IV.

Our Jeſus brake its Bars away,
And mounts to everlaſting Day;
On the third Morn, the op'ning Skies
Beheld the glorious Conqueror riſe.

V.

See where the Saviour reigns on high,
Circled with Rays of Majeſty;
And Saints with Joy and Pleaſure ſing,
The Triumphs of their heav'nly King.

LXVI. Iſaiah's Prophecy fulfill'd in the Hardneſs of the unbelieving Jews. John xii. 37, 38, 39, 40, 41.

I.

WHAT various Miracles and Signs
By Jeſus once were wrought!
The heav'nly Doctrines to confirm,
His Lips divinely taught.

II.

Yet, they who all theſe Wonders ſaw,
To truſt in Him diſdain;
Contemptuouſly they dare reject
The gracious Saviour's reign.

III.

Full well Iſaiah propheſy'd
Of that rebellious Race;
And what He by the Spirit ſpake,
In them We plainly trace.

IV.

Who hath believed our Report"
(Th' inſpired Prophet cries)
To whom hath been thine Arm reveal'd?
Thou Sov'reign of the Skies.

V.

Since they would not my Word receive,
To them diſpens'd in vain,
My Grace they ſhall not now enjoy,
Nor hear my Voice again.

VI.

To their own native Darkneſs left,
To an obdurate Mind;
Of heav'nly Light and Life bereft;
Leſt they the Truth ſhould find.

VII.

Now clos'd their Eyes no more ſhall ſee,
Their Hearts not underſtand;
The Road that leads to Bliſs on high,
To Joys at God's right Hand.

VIII. They

VIII.

ey ne'er ſhall know converting Grace,
Nor pard'ning Mercy feel;
r all their vile Iniquities
Their Souls I will not heal.

IX.

ieſe Things th' holy Prophet ſaw,
And ſtrait in Words expreſs'd;
hen Jeſus to his wondring Eyes
In Glory ſhone confeſs'd.

XVIII. The wonderful Effects of the Love of Chriſt. Rom. v. 8,—10.

I.

BEHOLD the great Redeemer's Love!
Who to atone for human Guilt,
d on the Croſs his Life reſign,
s Blood he for Tranſgreſſors ſpilt.

II.

hen Dead in Treſpaſſes We lay, is Grace the more to recommend;
is Mercy God did then diſplay, is Kindneſs then to Us extend.

III. Where

III.

Where ſhall on Earth the Man be found,
That for the Righteous dares to bleed?
In Jeſus ſuch Compaſſion reign'd,
He ſuffer'd in the Sinner's ſtead.

IV.

Ranſom'd by this amazing Price,
The Saints complete Redemption have;
Jeſus our glorious Sacrifice,
Jeſus alone hath Power to ſave.

V.

The Smiles of a propitious God
Now meet with Joy our raptur'd Sight;
His Love ſhed in each Heart abroad,
Yield Peace, and Joy, and ſweet Delight.

LXIX. The End of Apoſtates. Heb. x. 26.—31.

I.

SHould thoſe who have the Goſpel known
Againſt that Goſpel riſe;
For ſuch Offenders to atone
Remains no Sacrifice.

II. Juſtice

II.

ſtice with dreadful Wrath inflam'd,
More awfully ſevere;
he harden'd Sinner ſhall conſign
To Torment and Deſpair.

III.

) milder Doom ſhall Them await
From the avenging Skies;
ho dare God's only Son reject,
His richeſt Grace deſpiſe.

IV.

! how tremendous 'tis to fall
Beneath God's lifted Hand!
hen his fierce Indignation burns,
Who can his Power withſtand?

XX. Chriſt's ſecond Coming. Coloſ. iii. 4.

I.

EHOLD the joyful Seaſon near,
When Chriſt in Glory ſhall appear;
e his aſſembled Saints around,
ith Diadems celeſtial crown'd.

II.

All who his bleſt Appearance love,
And wait his Coming from above;
Now meet the Saviour's ſmiling Face,
And ſhare the Bounties of his Grace.

III.

Array'd in Righteouſneſs complete,
With Joy they ſtand before his Seat;
And in that bright Apparel dreſt,
Appear the Sons of God confeſt.

IV.

Thoſe radiant Crowns their Heads adorn,
Excell the Luſtre of the Morn;
Their Brightneſs ne'er ſhall fade away,
But ſhine to an immortal Day.

LXXI. Redemption celebrated. Coloſ. i. 16.

(Proper Tune.)

I.

JEſus how rich, how wondrous was thy Love
That left for Us the glorious Realms above;
Realms of unclouded Bliſs beyond the Sky,
For Man to ſuffer, and for Man to die.

II. By

II.

By thy creating Power were all Things made,
From Heav'n's bright Orbs, ev'n to the meaneſt Blade;
That ſprings, and grows along the verdant Plains,
When bounteous Spring, or joyful Summer reigns.

III.

Thou gav'ſt th' omnific Word "Let there be Light,"
Uproſe the Sun in glorious Splendor bright;
Each glitt'ring Star that ſpangles in the Sky,
Proclaims thy Power and ſpeaks thy Majeſty.

IV.

Still hath thy Grace ſuperior Wonders ſhown,
Jeſus for Sinners left his heav'nly Throne;
His richeſt Blood for vile Tranſgreſſors ſhed,
See God's own Son number'd amongſt the Dead.

V.

May ſuch Compaſſions ev'ry Heart inflame,
To celebrate with Joy the Saviour's Name;
To Thee may our enraptur'd Spirits raiſe
An everlaſting Monument of Praiſe.

LXXII. All that the Father gave to Chriſt ſhall come to Him. John vi. 37, 38, 39, 40.

I.

HOW few alas receive
The Meſſages of Grace!
Ev'n Multitudes did not believe That ſaw the Saviour's Face.

II.

" All whom the Father gave
Shall come to Me (He cries)
And here complete Salvation gain,
From all their Miſeries.

III.

Jeſus will ne'er reject
A Sinner's humble Suit;
It ſhall a kind Acceptance meet,
Nor will He caſt Him out.

IV.

Commiſſion'd from above,
From Heav'n with joy He came;
To manifeſt the Father's Love,
And to reveal his Name.

V.

V.

This is the almighty Will,
That None ſhould be undone;
all whom ſov'reign Mercy gave
To his beloved Son.

VI.

He will his Saints relieve
From all their threat'ning Fears;
d they ſhall in his Favor live,
And find Salvation theirs.

VII.

What tho' to Death a Prey
Their fleeting Breath may come?
ſus will break its bars away
And open ev'ry Tomb.

VIII.

Swift dawns th' approaching Day
When all his Saints ſhall riſe; riumphant from their Beds of Clay,
To reign above the Skies.

LXXIII. The Saints Triumph in the Proſpect of future Glory. 2 Tim. iv. 7, 8.

I.

WHAT glorious, what divine Rewards,
In the bright Realms of Joy and Love,
Await the Foll'wers of the Lord!
When Jeſus calls them to remove.

II.

The coming Bliſs their Souls employs,
Too vaſt for Language to expreſs;
Yet Faith foreſees the heav'nly Crown
Which they hereafter ſhall poſſeſs.

III.

Now wing'd for the important Flight,
The Saint thus triumphs at the Sight;
" Juſt on the Verge of Life I ſtand,
And my Departure is at Hand.

IV.

" Approv'd in my Redeemer's Sight,
On Earth I've fought the better Fight;
The Warfare o'er, my Race is run,
Life everlaſting is begun.

V. The

V.

The Crown of Righteouſneſs is mine,
ax I have kept the Faith divine;
reaſures of endleſs Glory ſee
aid up in Heav'n, in Heav'n for Me.

VI.

Nor are theſe Pleaſures moſt refin'd,
r Me, and Me alone deſign'd;
ut all that his Appearing Love
all ſhare immortal Joys above.

VII.

them will Chriſt his Grace diſplay
the laſt great deciſive Day;
nd ev'ry Saint reward and bleſs
ith a bright Crown of Righteouſneſs.

XXIV. The laſt Judgment. Rev. vi. 16, 17.

I.

BEHOLD the Judge, the Saviour comes!
The Trumpet wakes the riſing Dead;
lis Throne of Judgment he aſſumes,
'er the wide Earth the Summons ſpread.

II.

Lo! all aſſembled at his Bar,
Now ev'ry Eye muſt Jeſus ſee;
Proud Unbelievers muſt appear,
That fain would from his Preſence flee.

III.

The Wretch that pierc'd Him too ſhall
Now harden'd Hearts begin to fail;
For each muſt hear his righteous Doom
And all the Ungodly Race ſhall wail.

IV.

" Hide Us ye Mountains, hark, (they c
From Him that ſits upon his Throne;
Shield Us from his all-piercing Eye,
And from his more tremendous Frown.

V.

Now dawns the awful Day of Wrath;
The Hour of Vengeance is at Hand,
Which dooms the guilty Soul to Death,
And who may in his Preſence ſtand?"

VI.

The Saints alone in that dread Hour
With Joy and Triumph lift their Head
While at his Sight whom they adore,
The Earth, the Sea, and Skies are fled.

LXXV. "If Ye then be riſen with Chriſt, ſeek thoſe Things which are above. Coloſ. iii. 1, 2, 3, 4.

I.

NOW let our Songs to Jeſus riſe
Who dwells enthron'd above the Skies:
There He prepares his Saints a Place,
There ſhall they ſee his glorious Face.

II.

This Hope now lifts our Thoughts above,
To the bright Courts of Joy and Love;
By Faith directed to aſpire
Beyond each earthly low Deſire.

III.

No fix'd Abode We claim on Earth,
But Faith aſſerts her heav'nly Birth;
See the bright Realms of endleſs Day
Now welcome Us from Earth away.

IV.

Nor Time, nor Senſe, can e'er confine
Our Souls from Proſpects ſo divine;
On Wings of Faith our Spirits riſe
To the bright Manſions in the Skies.

V. We

V.

We wait for the ſublime Reward
Promis'd by our aſcended Lord;
Where Sins and Sorrows ever ceaſe,
Where reign immortal Joy and Peace

LXXVI. The Believer's Security and H

2 Tim. i. 12.

I.

WHAT Joy, what holy Confiden
Springs from the Saviour's
His Saints with Hopes ſublime inſpir
Their Faith in Him proclaim.

II.

I know in whom I have believ'd,
Jeſus my heav'nly Friend;
His Arm from Danger can relieve,
His Grace my Soul defend.

III.

Of his almighty Pow'r to ſave,
No fears ſhall now remain;
Since to redeem Us from the Grave,
He dy'd and roſe again.

IV.

IV.

ſted by his Guardian Hand,
Amidſt ſurrounding Foes,
oul ſhall ſtill in Safety ſtand,
The Hoſts of Hell oppoſe.

V.

to the laſt deciſive Day
His Saints his Care may boaſt;
his Salvation they enjoy,
In whom is all their Truſt.

VI.

will He all his Foll'wers own
Before his Father's Face;
they on his celeſtial Throne,
With Him ſhall ſhare a Place.

VII. Salvation the End of the Chriſtian's Faith. 1 Pet. i. 8, 9.

I.

[O' not beheld by mortal Sight,
In Jeſus ſtill his Saints rejoice;
Source of their ſupreme Delight!
tain of their immortal Joys!

II. While

II.

While in his glorious Name We truſt,
Complete Salvation We obtain;
His Name We make our only Boaſt,
Who on the Croſs for Us was ſlain.

III.

The End of all our Faith and Hope,
Life everlaſting We receive;
His Blood hath theſe rich Bleſſings bought,
His Hands theſe Bleſſings freely give.

IV.

Our Souls their grateful Tribute pay,
Triumphing in the Lord alone;
To Him We glad Hoſannas raiſe,
And ſend them to his heav'nly Throne.

LXXVIII. Meetneſs for future Glory. Coloſ 12, 13.

I.

NOW to the Father's boundleſs Love,
That makes Us Heirs of Joys above
The bright Inheritance of Heav'n,
Be everlaſting Honours giv'n.

II.

II.

gracious purpoſe to complete,
forms us for that Glory meet;
iis illuminating Word,
n Darkneſs are our Souls reſtor'd.

III.

l from our ſinful Bondage free, brings Us into Liberty;
nſlated by his Grace alone,
the Kingdom of his Son.

IV.

We are reconcil'd to God,
o' Jeſus' all-atoning Blood;
l full Redemption now obtain,
auſe for Us the Lamb was ſlain.

XIX. The Promiſe of the holy Spirit. John xiv. 26, 27.

I.

ET Grief be baniſh'd from our Hearts,
And ceaſe each falling Tear;
ll may the Joys which Chriſt imparts,
The drooping Spirits cheer.

II. "Tho'

II.

Tho' abſent for a while (He cries)
The Comforter I'll ſend;
To be your Teacher and your Guide,
Your Counſellor and Friend.

III.

He ſhall all Things to you reveal,
And to your Minds renew
The Truths divine which I have taug
Whilſt I remain'd with You.

IV.

Peace is the Legacy I leave,
My Peace to you I grant;
Let this the troubled Heart relieve,
And baniſh each Complaint.

V.

Tho' preſent with You, now no more,
I will return again;
And with your Lord whom Ye adore
Ye ſhall for ever reign.

XX. The Price of our Redemption. 1 Pet. i. 18, 19, 20.

I.

OT all the Treaſures Earth can boaſt,
Not all the coſtlieſt Gems that ſhine;
ıld e'er redeem a Sinner loſt, ıld e'er atone the Wrath divine.

II.

'as before all Worlds decreed
: ſpotleſs Lamb of God muſt bleed;
old on the appointed Day,
ıs his wondrous Grace diſplay.

III.

ft on the Wings of heav'nly Love,
Him deſcend from Worlds above;
Him almighty Wrath atone,
d for our Life give up his own.

IV.

ıold He from the Grave revives,
d now with God his Father lives;
ıry his ſacred Head adorns,
:e wounded and beſet with Thorns.

V. Now

V.

Now crown'd with Rays of Majeſty,
Th' aſcended Saviour reigns on high;
Both Heav'n and Earth his Empire own,
By God exalted to his Throne.

LXXXI. The univerſal Law of Equity. Matt. vii. 12.

I.

YE Saints attend and underſtand
Jeſus the Saviour's great Command;
And Ye that in his Name believe,
His Doctrine all divine receive.

II.

What e'er Ye wiſh for Men to do,
To them the ſame return is due;
Never to others Treatment give,
That Ye yourſelves would not receive.

III.

From this one Rule We clearly draw
The Scope of God's moſt perfect Law;
And all the Prophets have explain'd,
In One bleſt Precept is contain'd.

IV. Ye

IV.

engrave it deep on ev'ry Heart,
ſus thy Spirit now impart!
at We may do to Men the ſame
at We expect, or hope from Them.

XXXII. The Terror of the Ungodly at Chriſt's Coming. Rev. i. 7. vi. 16, 17.

(Proper Tune.)

I.

)Ehold on flying Clouds the Saviour comes!
See where his Throne of Judgment He aſſumes!
ı' Archangel's Trumpet wakes the riſing Dead,
ıro' Earth, thro' Sea, and Land the Summons ſpread.

II.

)w ev'ry Eye the Judge Himſelf muſt ſee,
)r can the Guilty from his Preſence flee;
fore his Bar, all ſummon'd to draw near,
his Tribunal, lo, They all appear!

III.

There muſt the impious Race that pierc'd h come,
And from his Lips await their righteous Doo
The Kindreds of the Earth aſtoniſh'd wail,
And Hearts once harden'd now begin to f

IV.

Hide Us, Ye Rocks, beneath your lofty heigh
Ye Mountains ſhield Us with your tenfold Wei
From Him that ſits on his majeſtic Throne,
E'er by his dreadful Wrath We are undone.

V.

Amen, Amen, (adoring Angels cry)
Their loud Amen the holy Prophets join;
Apoſtles, Martyrs, Saints, Amen reply,
In one harmonious Symphony divine.

LXXXIII. The Privileges of Chriſt's Diſcip

John xiv. 18.

I.

NOW let our troubled Thoughts ſubſide,
And new Delight ariſe;
The Voice of Chriſt revives our Hopes,
His Voice awakes our Joys.

II. "

II.

Not Bleſſings ſuch as Earth can yield,
I on my Saints beſtow;
ſs more ſubſtantial and refin'd,
Shall all my Foll'wers know.

III.

Let not your Heart with Grief oppreſt,
Yield to deſponding Fear;
) ſuccour You in each Diſtreſs
Behold the Saviour near.

IV.

He will not leave Us comfortleſs,
His Abſence long to mourn:
)r ſhall we long lament his Stay,
But hail his bleſt Return!

V.

And ſince our Lord Redeemer lives,
We ſhall with Him enjoy
Life of never-ending Bliſs,
And of immortal Joy.

PSALM LXXXIV.

I.

HOW amiable, how divine,
O Lord of Hoſts thy Temples ſhine!
How pants my Soul to tread the Court
Where Saints to meet their God reſort.

II.

For Thee I thirſt, for Thee alone,
To come and bow before thy Throne!
When ſhall I viſit thine Abode?
My Heart and Fleſh cry out for God.

III.

The Sparrow, tenant of the Fields,
Her Houſe amidſt the Thicket builds;
And there along the verdant ſprays,
She chirps her glorious Maker's Praiſe.

IV.

The Swallow too provides her Neſt,
And near thine Altars loves to reſt;
Thither the Birds reſort, and ſing
Their tuneful Notes to the heav'nly King.

V. O, wher

V.

when ſhall I like Them be bleſt?
› make thy Courts my Home, my Reſt:
› Thee glad Songs of Joy I'll raiſe.
ıd celebrate aloud thy Praiſe.

PART II.

I.

.ESSED, ſupremely bleſt is He,
hoſe Strength is fix'd, O Lord, on Thee!
ſſing thro' Baca's ſultry Vale, ıere ſprings the cool refreſhing Well.

II.

he watry Brooks their thirſt allay,
ıd cheer the Trav'llers on their Way;
hus ſtrengthened for the bright career,
t length in Zion all appear.

III.

heir Steps now tread the ſacred Ground,
nd in thy Praiſes They abound:
tuneful Notes of ſacred Joy,
hey the delightful Hours employ.

PART III.

I.

LOOK down, O God! with Grace divin
On thy anointed Servant ſhine!
Thou art our Shield in whom we truſt,
And in thy Name alone we boaſt.

II.

A thouſand Years could I command,
Might I but in thy Preſence ſtand;
To ſpend within thy Courts one Day,
I'd give a thouſand Years away.

III.

'Twere better far to keep the Door
Where Saints aſſemble, to adore
Where God Himſelf reſides within,
Than live in Palaces of Sin.

IV.

How ſhall I ſpread thy Name abroad?
Or ſpeak thy Glories, O my God?
Thou art my Sun alone to cheer,
And Thou my Shield when Danger's nea

V. O

V.

O God of Hoſts, almighty Lord!
By Angels and by Saints ador'd:
Bleſſed, ſupremely bleſt is He,
Whoſe Truſt is fix'd alone in Thee.

LXXXV. The Grace of God not to be received in vain. 2 Cor. v. 20, 21. vi. 1.

(Proper Tune.)

I.

NOW Mercy and Grace ſhines abroad,
To beſeech You We cannot refrain;
As Workers together with God,
Receive not his rich Grace in vain.

II.

Since He gave his dear Son to die,
For Thoſe who in Guilt long had lain;
To bring wretched Foreigners nigh,
Receive not his rich Grace in vain.

III.

Now Sinners to God reconcil'd,
May bleſt in his Favor remain;
Who once from his Face were exil'd
Receive not his rich Grace in vain.

IV. With

IV.

With Gladneſs now hear and
O ſhall the Redeemer complai
" I ſtretch'd out my Hands
" To obſtinate Rebels in vain.

V.

Shall vile Luſts your Hearts
Like Slaves in their accurſed
And Jeſus ſtill wait all the wh
To ſet You at Freedom in vain

VI.

His Anger deſerved by Sin,
Since Pity divine will reſtrain
Reject not the merciful Suit,
Receive not his rich Grace in v

VII.

How kind is the Meſſage of I
How melting and gracious th
Be wiſe, the glad Tidings im
Receive not his rich Grace in v

L

LXXXVI. Titles and Characters aſcribed to our Lord Jeſus Chriſt. John xiv. 6

I.

YE Saints rejoice while Ye record,
The Names and Titles of your Lord;
And join to celebrate his Grace,
Tho' abſent from the Saviour's Face.

II.

In Chriſt our Life alone We live,
And Righteouſneſs complete receive;
Daily from our exalted Head,
Our Souls with Strength and Joy are fed.

III.

Behold our Advocate appears,
And on his Heart our Names He wears;
Engrav'd in Characters divine,
Before his Father's Face they ſhine.

IV.

See the bright Path that leads to God,
Mark'd by the Lines of Jeſus' Blood.
The Sinner's Surety and his Hope,
His Promiſe bears our Spirits up.

V. We

III.

His Triumphs and his Vict'ries tell,
Sing how He conquer'd Death and Hell;
Our Ranſom paid, He lives again,
To ſee the Fruits, of all his Pain.

IV.

Before his Saints admiring Eyes,
Lo, He aſcends the upper Skies!
Far hence be each deſponding Fear,
Whilſt Joys like theſe our Spirits cheer.

V.

Jeſus th' eternal World commands,
The Keys of Death are in his Hands;
Hell trembles at his awful Pow'r,
And all th' Angelic Hoſt adore.

LXXXIX. God's Promiſe to Abraham. Gen. xviii. 7. Gal. iii. 29.

I.

TO Abrah'm the almighty ſaid,
"I'll be to thee a God;
And to thy Seed tho' ſcatter'd wide,
O'er all the Earth abroad.

II. "An

II.

An everlaſting Covenant
Behold I make with Thee;
Which ſhall thro' endleſs Ages laſt,
Thro' all Eternity.

III.

To Generations yet unborn
Extends the promis'd Grace;
To Childrens Children and their Seed,
With all thy faithful Race.

IV.

With Thee and Them my Cov'nant ſtands
Invariably ſecure;
And they that truſt my Grace ſhall find
My Promiſes are ſure.

V.

They who inherit Abrah'm's Faith,
With Abrah'm ſhall be bleſt;
The Word of Inſpiration's firm,
And there We ſafely reſt.

XC. The

XC. The Image of the invisible
15, 16, 17, 18, 1

I.

NOW in the Face of Jesus,
God's brightest Form of Beaming with mild and heav'nl
He all his Father's Grace displa

II.

Blest Image of th' eternal God,
Here his rich Glories shine abr
With a resplendent Lustre shin
His Pow'r, his Truth, and Lov

III.

Of all Creation the First-born,
Of all that Heav'n's bright Cou
He as a Prince and Sov'reign r
Almighty Pow'r his Throne sust

IV.

See Jesus our exalted Head,
By whom the Heav'ns and Eart
Subjected to his high Comman
Thrones, Kingdoms, and Domi

V.

t pleas'd eternal Fullneſs well,
Chriſt the Lord alone to dwell;
om this rich Fountain freely flows mplete Relief for all our Woes.

CI. The heavenly Shepherd. John x. 11—16.

I.

VITH ſacred Joy Ye Saints attend,
With pleaſing Wonder hear;
he Voice of Chriſt your heav'nly Friend,
Harmonious greets your Ear.

II.

Shepherd's tender Name He claims,
And o'er his Flock preſides;
is conſtant unremitting Care
For all their Wants provides.

III.

ought can his Grace to Them exceed;
Nor Death his Love confine;
he faithful Shepherd for his Flock
Doth his own Life reſign.

* Εὐδόκησε πᾶν το πλήρωμα.

IV. And

IV.

And they attentive to his Word,
Rejoice to do his Will,
A Stranger they will ne'er obey,
Nor his Command fulfill.

V.

Averſe they turn their Ear away,
As from a Voice unknown;
To them ſo ſweet no Accents ſound,
As Jeſus' Voice alone.

VI.

Nor leſs his pitying Eye regards
Thoſe from his Fold remov'd;
The Gentiles to his Church He'll bring,
For they are ſtill belov'd.

VII.

They to their heav'nly Shepherd's Call
Shall lend a willing Ear;
And with the Myriads of his Saints
Enjoy his gracious Care.

CII. Union with Chriſt maintained by Obedience and Love. John xv. 1—7—11.

I.

Am the Vine, (the Saviour cries)
And the Life-giving Root;
oſe Branches which in Me abide,
Alone can bring forth Fruit.

II.

Ye my Laws and Doctrines keep
When by Temptations preſt;
ſtill ſhall in my Favor live,
And with my Grace be bleſt.

III.

at love the Father bears to Me,
To You I alſo bear;
en in my Love continue Ye,
And all its Bleſſings ſhare.

IV.

hile ſtedfaſt Ye my Cauſe maintain,
And my Commands purſue;
hat e'er your Wants bid You implore,
For You my Saints I'll do.

V.

These Things to cheer the drooping Heart,
Doth Christ to Us reveal;
That We may in his Joys partake,
His Joys divinely feel.

VI.

That Love which He to Us hath shown,
Let each to other bear;
And thus the World itself shall own
We his Disciples are.

XCII. Judge not that Ye be not judged, &c.
Matt. vii. 1, 2, 3.

I.

FROM Vanity and Pride forbear,
From Censures hasty and severe;
Know that the Judgment Ye dispense,
Will shortly claim a Recompense.

II.

What Measure Ye to others give,
Ye shall impartially receive;
And by the like exact Decree
Wherewith You judge, Ye judg'd shall be.

III. Then

III.

Then why ſo curious to eſpy
A Mote in thy weak Brother's Eye?
When, lo, a Beam ſtill in thy own,
Lies all unnotic'd and unknown!

IV.

Or how his Frailty to diſplay,
E'er canſt Thou to thy Brother ſay?
"Let Me thoſe Blemiſhes correct,
"And from thine Eye the Mote extract.

V.

Thou Hypocrite! ſo proud, and vain,
Another's Vices to arraign;
Yet ſtill to greater Follies blind,
That lurk in thy diſtemper'd Mind.

VI.

From thine own Eye the Beam expel,
Where Prejudice and Error dwell;
And Thou impartially ſhalt learn,
Thy Neighbor's Weakneſs to diſcern.

VII.

More juſtly Thou wilt then eſpy
Where Other's Imperfections lie;
And with Fidelity and Love
Each Folly and each Vice reprove.

XCIV. The Reſurrection and laſt Judgmen
John v. 28, 29.

I.

BEHOLD! at the divine Command
The Dead at God's Tribunal ſtand!
From their long Sleep with ſtrange ſurpriz
The Myriads of Mankind ariſe.

II.

See! High, and Low, and Small, and Gre
Appear before his Judgment-Seat;
Monarchs and Slaves together come,
Awaiting their deciſive Doom.

III.

The Judge now with impartial Hands,
The ſacred Volume wide expands;
And as their Works have been, awards
Almighty Vengeance or Rewards.

IV.

T'inſpire his Saints with ſacred Joys,
Now He the Book of Life diſplays;
Where ſhines conſpicuous ev'ry Name,
Of ev'ry Foll'wer of the Lamb.

V. Th

V.

ere ſhall th' Ungodly find no Place,
ey fly with Dread from Jeſus' Face;
jects of his tremendous Wrath,
hich dooms their guilty Souls to Death.

CV. God all in all. Pſalm lxxiii. 25, 26.

I.

MY God, to Thee I look
For Happineſs alone;
) earthly Joys my Mind ſhall ſeek,
No Joys beneath thy Throne.

II.

Upward my Soul aſpires,
At thy tranſporting Name;
Y GOD: the ſacred Sound inſpires
A ſweet celeſtial Flame.

III.

To Vanities below
When ſhall We bid farewell?
o ſit where endleſs Pleaſures flow,
With God Himſelf to dwell.

IV.

This Frame of Fleſh and Blood
Muſt to the Duſt return;
Then the bleſt Soul aſcends to God,
And oh for this We burn!

V.

Thou Source of unknown Joys!
Thou Fountain of Delight!
All Things to Thee are empty Toys,
That fade upon the Sight.

VI.

Grant Us this ſole Requeſt,
A Portion in thy Love;
This ſweet Repaſt of all the Bleſt,
That Angels taſte above.

VII.

Nought elſe will We purſue,
To this our Soul aſpires;
There's Nothing ſhort can bound its V
Or fill its vaſt Deſires.

VIII.

Lord ſearch and know our Hea
Survey our inmoſt Mind!
What Sweetneſs Earth or Heav'n imp
In Thee alone We find.

XC

XCVI. The Bleſſedneſs that awaits the Followers of Chriſt. John xiv. 2.

I.

WHAT rich and gracious Promiſes
The kind Redeemer gives!
That ev'ry Saint may be refreſh'd,
Who on his Promiſe lives.

II.

Lo, in his Father's Houſe above,
For their delightful Seat;
Manſions of heav'nly Joy and Reſt,
His Followers await!

III.

There to prepare for Them a Place,
Jeſus to Heaven aſcends;
And there ſhall They with rapture taſte
That Bliſs which never ends.

IV.

To Us He will return again,
And all his Saints receive;
And We with Him ſhall ever reign,
With Him for ever live.

XCVII. The

XCVII. The Chriſtian Climax. Rom. v. 1—5.

I.

O What Compaſſion, Grace and Love,
Did the incarnate Saviour move!
Who Sinners reconcil'd to God,
And ſhed his all-atoning Blood.

II.

Now to a State of matchleſs Grace,
By Faith We have a free Acceſs;
And Hopes delightful entertain,
We ſhall in Bliſs immortal reign.

III.

While Glory crowns our higheſt Joys,
In Tribulations We rejoice;
By ev'ry Suff'ring Patience taught,
And thus is ſweet Experience wrought.

IV.

Now Hope upon Experience waits,
And Heav'n itſelf anticipates;
Where never-ending Pleaſures grow,
Unmingled, or with Grief, or Woe.

V.

ıe Holy Spirit ſheds abroad
ev'ry Heart the Love of God;
re Pledge of Bleſſedneſs on high,
ıd Glory which ſhall never die.

XCVIII. Chriſt exalted to his Throne. Acts v. 31.

I.

JESUS once crucify'd,
Who hung upon the Tree;
ɔw ſits enthron'd above the Skies,
In Immortality.

II.

The Prince, the Saviour reigns;
How well thoſe Names agree!
ɔr ſuch his gracious Heart diſdains,
That to his Mercy flee.

III.

He grants repenting Grace,
Salvation He beſtows;
ıd full Remiſſion thro' his Name,
The trembling Conſcience knows.

IV. Such

IV.

Such Gifts our heav'nly Prince,
At the Right-Hand of God,
With moſt divine Munificence,
Sheds plenteouſly abroad.

V.

From his exalted Throne,
With royal Clemency;
To Iſr'el He forgiveneſs grants,
That had deſerv'd to die.

VI.

While his rich Love and Grace
The Saviour reveals;
The holy Spirit from above
The joyful Tidings ſeals.

XCIX. The Doom of the Ungodly. Heb. x. 28, 29, 30.

I.

WHO e'er deſpiſed Moſes' Law,
Without Redemption dies;
His Life the bold Tranſgreſſor paid,
A dreadful Sacrifice.

II. I

II.

t heavier Puniſhment awaits,
From God's avenging Rod,
ıe ſtubborn unbelieving Race,
That on his Son have trod.

III.

s Blood which the New-Covenant ſeal'd,
And our Redemption bought;
ıat Blood whereby We are ſanctify'd,
* They boldly ſet at Nought.

IV.

ıe holy Spirit they reſiſt,
His Influence deſpiſe;
ıd treat the Goſpel of his Grace,
With vile Indignities.

V.

But Vengeance (ſaith the Lord) is mine,
I will their Guilt repay;"
wake my Sword, my Wrath awake,
Nor ſhall it e'er delay.

VI.

:hold the Lord to Judgment comes,
Ye Saints prepare Him room;
e comes his Servants to reward,
And ſeal the Sinner's Doom.

* παῖδον πνησμενος

C. The Glory of God manifeſt
Pſalm. xix. 1

I.

O'ER all thy Works eternal
Thy Power and Goodneſ
Thine Attributes they all conf
And aid our Tongues thy Na

II.

Thro' Heav'n and Earth how b
Impreſs'd with Characters div
While Sun and Stars their Co
Unceaſing round the ſteady P

III.

In all the Luſtre they diſplay,
Their Maker's greatneſs We ſ
While they with ſilent Voice
The Glories that compoſe thy

The Martyrdom of Stephen. Acts vi. 15.

I.

HAT tender Pity, Love and Care,
For Suff'ring Saints doth Jeſus bear;
they his glorious Name confeſs,
t Perſecution and Diſtreſs.

II.

by the Oppreſſor's Rod they ſmart, ıe Redeemer ſtill impart
onſolations all divine, cheerful Beams their Faces ſhine.

III.

Stephen the firſt Martyr dies,
uth a joyful Sacrifice;
ndicate the Cauſe of God,
als the Goſpel with his Blood.

IV.

ɔn his Countenance appears Radiance as an Angel wears;
ted Rays of Glory bright,
the Spectator's wondring Sight.

V. Not

V.

Not Death with all its dread Array,
His heav'n-born Soul could e'er diſmay;
Jeſus the Saint expiring cheers,
And to his raptur'd Sight appears.

VI.

"Behold (He cries) Heav'n-Gates expand,
Exalted ſee at God's right Hand,
The Son of Man with Glory crown'd,
And the bright Seraphim around.

VII.

Thus would the View of Jeſus' Face,
Each Fear diſarm, each Terror chaſe;
Thus bleſt with Joy we yield our Breath,
Triumphing o'er the Monſter, Death.

CII. The Saints Reſurrection.

I.

WITH hopeleſs grief no longer weep,
For Saints that now in "Jeſus ſleep;"
What tho' our Eyes ſee them no more,
They reſt with Him whom We adore.

II. Tl

II.

Tho' number'd with the ſilent Dead,
Yet ſhall they live with Chriſt their Head;
He will awake their ſlumbring Duſt,
At the Revival of the Juſt.

III.

Swift haſtens the delightful Day,
When they ſhall mount their heav'nly Way;
When all the Saints ſhall be reſtor'd,
To dwell with their aſcended Lord.

IV.

From the dark Shades of Death they riſe
To Thrones of Bliſs above the Skies;
They now to endleſs Life awake,
And everlaſting Joys partake.

CIII. Which Things the Angels deſire to look into.
1 Pet. i. 12.

(Proper Tune.)

I.

WAKE my Heart to ſound his Praiſe,
Who redeem'd Us by his Blood;
Hymns of Joy and Gladneſs raiſe,
To our Saviour and our God.

II. Well

II.

Well might Angels with Delight,
Stoop his Wondrous Love to view;
And this moſt ſtupendous Light,
Meditate with Rapture too.

III.

Lo, He pays the Price divine,
Offers up his ſacred Blood;
Such amazing Love was thine,
Love well worthy of a God.

IV.

Oh! that We our Notes could raiſe,
In the moſt exalted ſtrains;
And the bleſt Redeemer Praiſe,
As in Glory where He reigns.

V.

Faint alas! are all our Songs,
Jeſus to thy ſacred Name;
Did we boaſt angelic Tongues,
This would Notes angelic claim.

VI.

Yet to ſing our Souls ſhall try,
Such rich Grace deſerves a Song;
To Him who vouchſaf'd to die.
Our warmeſt Praiſes well belong.

V. The Lamb ſlain before the Foundation of the World.

I.

[OW ſhall our feeble Lips proclaim
The Honors of the Saviour's Name, how the Gratitude declare,
r Hearts inflam'd to Jeſus bear?

II.

manifeſt his wondrous Love,
nold He leaves the Worlds above;
om Climes of Bliſs beyond the Sky,
ift He deſcends to bleed and die.

III.

, He again from Death revives,
us the great Redeemer lives;
gh-ſeated on his Father's Throne,
: ſheds his choiceſt Bleſſings down,

CV. Believer's Fellowſhip with Chriſt. Joh. xv. 13, 14.

I.

JESUS how far thy Grace tranſcends,
The Warmeſt Kindneſs of our Friends!
Our Souls with grateful Wonder own,
The Condeſcenſion thou haſt ſhown.

II.

Superior Love could none diſplay,
Than for a Friend his Life to pay;
Yet Jeſus for his Enemies,
Offers Himſelf a Sacrifice.

III.

His more illuſtrious Grace to ſhew,
His Saints enjoy his Friendſhip too;
That ſacred Name the Saviour bears,
And well fulfills its Characters.

IV.

The Counſels of his Father's Throne
He makes to all his Foll'wers known;
And to Obedience they incline,
Conſtrain'd by Gratitude divine.

CVI.

CVI. The Bleſſedneſs of Believers at Chriſt's ſecond Coming, 1 Theſſ. iv. 13, 14, 15.

I.

NOW ceaſe our ſorrowful Complaints,
We mourn in Hope departed Saints;
For thus t' aſſuage our Griefs and Fears
The ſacred Word of Truth declares.

II.

Jeſus the Lord, our glorious Head,
Aroſe triumphant from the Dead;
His Saints with Rapture and ſurprize,
Beheld Him mount the ſtarry Skies.

III.

Thus will at laſt our heav'nly Friend,
Array'd in Majeſty deſcend;
Loud ſhall th' Archangel's Trumpet ſound,
Shake the wide Earth and cleave the Ground.

IV.

Then at the ſolemn Trump of God,
The rending Tombs all fly abroad;
Lo firſt the Dead in Chriſt revive,
With Him to reign, with Him to live.

V.

His Foll'wers that alive remain,
A Change immortal now ſuſtain,
Behold them all with Glory crown'd,
While ſhouting Angels ſtand around.

VI.

In triumph they aſcend the Skies,
And meet their Lord with joyful Eyes;
Tranſporting meet to part no more
Jeſus whom all their Souls adore.

VII.

What Happineſs theſe Proſpects bring,
Hence ſweeteſt Conſolations ſpring;
Theſe Promiſes our Souls receive,
" Departed Saints with Jeſus live."

CVII. Coming to Chriſt the Conſequence of divine Teaching. John vi. 44, 45.

I.

BE baniſh'd ev'ry murm'ring Thought,
From each believing Breaſt;
Hear what the Lips of Jeſus taught!
There We may ſafely reſt.

II. "

II.

To Me (He cries) no Man can come,
Save whom the Father draws;
is Spirit and his Grace alone,
Are the firſt moving Cauſe.

III.

ius what the Prophets ſpake of old
Is clearly underſtood;
hoſe Strains divinely ſweet foretold,
Men ſhould be taught of God.

IV.

ıey who the heav'nly Voice have heard;
(O Father taught by Thee)
) Jeſus ſhall with Joy repair,
And his Salvation ſee.

V.

om Death He will his Saints releaſe,
And from the Tomb reſtore;
inherit everlaſting Bliſs,
When Time ſhall be no more.

CVIII. "While We were yet Sinners, Chriſt died for Us." Rom. v. 6, 7, 8.

I.

WHEN all Mankind corrupt,
Did from their Maker ſtray;
Purſuing each the fatal Road,
That to Deſtruction lay.

II.

With Pity moſt divine,
From his bright Throne above;
Did Jeſus graciouſly deſcend,
Born on the Wings of Love.

III.

Involv'd in Guilt He found
The whole apoſtate Race;
Where Sin and Guilt did moſt abound,
Still more abounds his Grace.

IV.

While Heirs of Wrath We ſtood,
To Death and Hell a Prey;
To ranſom Sinners with his Blood,
He gave his Life away.

CIX. "It

.. "As Moses lifted up the Serpent in the Wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up." John iii. 14.

I.

MOSES by God's divine Command,
Raises the brazen Serpent high;
d bids the wounded Isr'elites,
old th' appointed Sign or die.

II.

ger they lift their fainting Eyes,
d viewing find immediate Cure;
ant their former Pains subside, truction rages now no more.

III.

us in the Form of sinful Flesh,
Jesus hanging on his Cross;
Man He tastes Death's bitter Cup, piring to redeem our Loss.

IV.

at all who in his Name believe, om Guilt releas'd and Satan's Chain;
ay everlasting Life receive, d in immortal Glory reign.

CX. The

CX. The Wonders of Redemption. Phil. ii. 7, 8.

I.

WITH Joy We ſing the wondrous Grace
In our Redeemer dwells;
Tho' Love thro' his whole Life We trace;
His dying Love excells.

II.

Love brought Him from his ſtarry Throne
Of Bliſs beyond the Sky;
Almighty Love our Guilt aton'd,
And Jeſus taught to die.

III.

Behold He ſtoops ev'n to the Grave,
From thence to raiſe Us up;
Now thence We full Redemption have,
Thro' Chriſt our "bleſſed Hope."

IV.

As from the Dead our Lord aſcends,
To Realms of endleſs Day;
So ſhall his Saints his Foll'wers riſe,
And mount their heav'nly Way

CXI. 1

CXI. The Proſpects of Nature and of G compared. John iv. 35, 36.

I.

LO, clad in Nature's bright Array,
The Fields a beauteous Scene diſpla
See how the golden Ears of Corn,
Wide-waving all the Hills adorn.

II.

See Earth with God's rich Goodneſs crow
And joyful Plenty ſmile around;
But now to our admiring Eyes,
Behold a brighter Proſpect riſe.

III.

Rich Harveſts where Salvation grows
Celeſtial Fruits their Leaves diſcloſe;
A Paradiſe on Earth appear,
And Faith and Hope preſents it near.

IV.

See Sinners haſt'ning to embrace
The Tidings of forgiving Grace;
Redeem'd from Hell with Price divine,
In Faith and Holineſs they ſhine.]

V.

V.

All crown'd with Immortality,
Theſe Fruits of Righteouſneſs ſhall b
" Then They that reap, and they th
Shall everlaſting Triumphs know.

VI.

Together ſhall their Songs ariſe,
In the fair Fields of Paradiſe;
And ſhouts of Triumph and of Joy,
Their bleſt Eternity employ.

CXII. Chriſt's triumphant Aſcenſion to dom repreſented in Pſalm xxi

I.

THE Earth is all the Lords;
To Him alone belong
The Nations with their Tribes,
How vaſt ſo e'er the Throng.
Fix'd on the Sea
By his Commands,
And firm Decree
The Globe now ſtands.

II.

Who in the heav'nly Hill
(The City of the Lord,)
That bleſt Abode ſhall dwell
With Joys divinely ſtor'd?
Whoſe Hands are clean,
And pure his Heart;
From ev'ry Sin
His Feet depart.

III.

'Tis He that ſhall receive
The Gift of Righteouſneſs;
And with Jehovah live,
In Realms of endleſs Bliſs:
This is the Race
That fear thy Rod;
And ſeek thy Face,
O, Jacob's God!

IV.

Lift up your Heads Ye Gates,
Prepare the Saviour Room
To the bright Palaces
Of his eternal Home.

Whom

Whom Heav'n adores
He is at Hand;
Now wide expand
Ye ſacred Doors!

V.

Who is this glorious King?
(Both Saints and Angels ſing)
To whom on either Hand
The heav'nly Gates expand?
The mighty Lord
For Strength renown'd;
And far and wide
His Triumphs ſound.

VI.

Lift up your Heads ye Gates,
And be exalted high;
The King in Robes of State,
Comes dreſt with Majeſty:
To Worlds of Light
With Pomp divine;
In Robes of State
See Him incline.

VII.

Who is this glorious King,
Aloud their Voices ſing)
Whom ev'ry Saint adores,
And all Angelic Pow'rs?
The Lord of Hoſts,
With Vict'ry crown'd!
Ye heav'nly Hoſts
His Name reſound!

---

SONGS OF PRAISE

AT THE CELEBRATION OF THE ## LORD'S SUPPER.

CXIII. Chriſt the true Bread from Heaven. John vi. 31, 32, 33.

I.

IN outward Signs here We behold
Our once expiring Lord;
With Him the Saints Communion hold,
Around his ſacred Board.

II.

With Manna in the Wildern
The Jews were often fe
Jeſus in this delightful Feaſt,
Shews Us far nobler Br

III.

Of all the Joys below the Sk
This is our beſt Repaſt
Here Saints with rapture anc
Salvation freely taſte.

IV.

The Saviour's Praiſes We wi
In the ſublimeſt Strains
And our glad Souls an Off'r
The Price of all his Pai

CXIV. Chriſt our Sacrifice

I.

WHAT bright Diſplays o
Are ſet before our E
See Jeſus hanging on his C
A bleeding Sacrifice!

II.

)! on his Head the thorny Crown
Which He for Sinners wore!
s ſacred Temples pierc'd and torn,
Streaming at ev'ry Pore!

III.

ıe deadly Spear transfix'd his Side,
The Nails his Hands and Feet;
unknown Agonies He dy'd,
Our Ranſom to complete.

IV.

'Tis finiſh'd" (the Redeemer cry'd)
With Love more ſtrong than Death;
ıen Juſtice having ſatisfy'd,
Jeſus reſigns his Breath.

XV. Miracles attending the Death of Chriſt. Matt. xxvii. 51, 52, 53.

I.

WHAT Prodigies divine
Were in that Hour diſplay'd;
hen Chriſt to expiate our Sins,
His Life a Ranſom paid!

II. Wrapt

II.

Wrapt in the Gloom of Night,
Thick Darkneſs veil'd the Earth;
To ſolemnize the great Event,
Which gave Redemption Birth.

III.

The Sun's bright Beams eclips'd,
Veil'd his diminiſh'd Head;
While Jeſus hanging on his Croſs,
For Man's Redemption bled.

IV.

The Earth's Foundations ſhook,
Affrighted Nature fled!
Huge Rocks were from their Centre broke;
And graves gave up their Dead!

V.

Saints that had ſlept in Duſt,
Their Eyelids now unclos'd;
Afreſh they drew their vital Breath,
And from the Tomb aroſe.

VI.

The Temple's ſacred Veil
Sudden was rent in twain;
Lo! Jeſus pow'rful Blood prevails,
For free Acceſs again.

CXVI. This is my Body which is broken for You. Luke xxii. 19, 20.

I.

IN glad Remembrance of our Lord,
We at his Table meet;
And here his wondrous Love record,
His Love to Us ſo great!

II.

"Behold (the kind Redeemer cries)
My Body broke for You!"
Here fix Ye Saints your wond'ring Eyes,
A bleeding Saviour view!

III.

Oft as ye eat the ſacred Bread,
Or of the Cup partake;
Remember Him with new Delight,
That ſuffer'd for your Sake.

IV.

While ſuch amazing Grace appears,
It Joys unknown imparts;
The heavy-laden Sinner cheers,
And heals the broken Hearts.

CXVII. Glorying in a crucify'd Saviour. Gal. vi. 14.

I.

LET others roll in ſenſual Joy,
Far other Scenes our Mind employ;
Jeſus! in thy victorious Croſs
Alone We triumph and rejoice.

II.

The World's vain Pomp, its empty Pride,
With all that it can boaſt beſide;
We but as vileſt Droſs eſteem,
If once it were compar'd with Him.

III.

His Poverty, his Shame, and Pain,
For Us did Crowns immortal gain;
And all that in his Footſteps tread,
To Joys above his Croſs will lead.

IV.

When Chriſt the Lord ſhall come again,
With Him ſhall all his Foll'wers reign;
High ſeated on his glorious Throne,
Then triumph in his Croſs alone.

CXVIII. Him having not ſeen Ye love. 1 Pet. i. 8, 9, 10.

I.

THE unſeen Saviour We adore,
Who on the Croſs was crucify'd;
hat He might Thoſe to Bliſs reſtore, hat in his glorious Name confide.

II.

is great Salvation We behold, hich Prophets in ſublimeſt Strains iat Jeſus ſhould obtain foretold, dying Agonies and Pains.

III.

e who for Us endur'd the Smart,
ſtly demands our warmeſt Love;
hold his wounded bleeding Heart!
id let each grateful Paſſion move.

IV.

e made his Life a Sacrifice,
om Wrath divine to ſet Us free;
ence Faith, and Hope, and Joy ariſe, id Love in a ſupreme Degree.

CXIX. My God, my God, why haſt Thou forſaken Me? Rom. v. 7—9.

I.

TO ſing Immanuel's Grace divine,
Ye Saints employ your tuneful Breath
Delightful is the ſacred Theme,
Of Jeſus' Love more ſtrong than Death.

II.

Lo! whilſt we were his Enemies,
Meet Objects of almighty Wrath;
He paid his Life a Sacrifice,
His Love to ſhew more ſtrong than Death.

III.

Sinners to ſave from endleſs Woes,
The Father's Frown He ſunk beneath;
The Law's dread Penalty He bore,
Diſplaying Love more ſtrong than Death.

IV.

Ye Saints unite with Thoſe above,
Ev'n in your laſt expiring Breath:
Unite to ſing the Saviour's Love,
More ſtrong, more powerful than Death.

CXX.

CXX. Reconciliation by Chriſt's Death. Rom. v. 18, 19.

I.

THE Love of Jeſus is our Theme,
His Croſs our only Boaſt;
Let Saints and Angels ſing his Name,
Who ranſom'd Sinners loſt.

II.

Guilty, afar from God We lay,
Expos'd to Wrath divine;
His Blood hath waſh'd our Guilt away,
That Grace on Us might ſhine.

III.

His ſacred Blood for Us He paid,
And Juſtice reconcil'd;
For Us ſweet Mercy pleaded loud,
And lo! the Father ſmil'd.

IV.

Let ev'ry Tongue his Praiſes ſing,
Sound each harmonious Strain;
To Him your Hearts an Off'ring bring,
Nor He'll the Gift diſdain.

CXXI. Chriſt

CXXI. Chriſt convinceth his Diſciples of his Reſurrection. John xx. 26—29.

I.

BEHOLD the bleſt Diſciples met!
When lo, to make their Joys complete,
With Them their ris'n Lord appears,
And thus diſpels their Doubts and Fears.

II.

" Peace be to You" (the Saviour cries)
And meets his Saints enraptur'd Eyes;
Bids doubting Thomas then explore
Thoſe Wounds that for his Sake He bore.

III.

" Attentively behold my Hands!
" Thus pierced by the Roman Bands;
" When faſten'd to the bloody Tree,
" Thus rent, and torn, and pierc'd for Thee!

IV.

" Thruſt thy own Hand into my Side,
" Which late the murd'rous Weapon dy'd.
" Thoſe Signals of my Pain explore,
" Behold theſe Scars, and doubt no more!"

V. " My

V.

Lord, my God!" what do I ſee!
wond'rous Love is ſhewn to Me!
' henceforth I'll doubt no more,
:forth my Saviour I adore.

VI.

(thus the great Redeemer ſaith)
ı Sight alone command thy Faith?
ɔre bleſt are They who do not ſee,
t ſtill confide and truſt in Me.

XII. Redemption by the Croſs of Chriſt. Coloſ. i. 14.

I.

T Jeſus' Love ſtill tune our Songs,
To Him our higheſt Praiſe belongs;
to redeem our Souls from Death,
ı the Croſs reſign'd his Breath.

II.

iis bleſt Ranſom now enlarg'd,
We from Hell and Sin diſcharg'd;
their fatal Pow'r hath broke,
freed Us from their galling Yoke.

His

III.

His Death hath gain'd our Liberty,
Hath ſet the Sons of Bondage free;
And taught our joyful Lips to ſing
The glorious Triumphs of our King.

CXXIII. Behold the Man! John xix. 5.

(Proper Tune.)

I.

LO! the Prince of Glory bleeds,
On the ignominious Tree;
Grace that all our Thoughts exceed,
Shewn to Sinners ſuch as We!

II.

There He vanquiſhes our Foes,
And the Pow'rs of Hell deſtroys;
We redeem'd from endleſs Woes,
Now poſſeſs immortal Joys.

III.

O! forbid it mighty God,
We ſhould triumph or rejoice;
Save in Jeſus' precious Blood,
And in his victorious Croſs.

IV.

IV.

So tranſcendent was thy Love,
Thou didſt leave thy heav'nly Throne;
And the ſhining Worlds above,
Boundleſs Mercy! Grace unknown!

V.

Hymns of Joy to Jeſus ſing,
We to Him Redemption owe;
Jeſus our victorious King,
Ranſom'd Us from endleſs Woe.

CXXIV. Through his Name is preached the Forgiveneſs of Sins. Coloſ. i. 14.

I.

AWAKE my Soul to praiſe the Lord,
Ye Saints unite in ſweet Accord;
Join all to celebrate the Name
Of Jeſus, and his Grace proclaim.

II.

That ſacred Name for ever dear,
Not Muſick ſo delights the Ear;
Sure Refuge from the Wrath divine,
Here boundleſs Love and Mercy ſhine.

III. Where

III.

Where e'er 'tis heard, the joyful Sound
Spreads Peace and Gladneſs all around;
But to the trembling Sinner's Heart,
Can Joys unutterable impart.

IV.

In Chriſt We full Redemption gain,
Pardon'd thro' his atoning Blood;
The ſpotleſs Lamb that once was ſlain,
To bring the Guilty near to God.

CXXV. He that eateth Me, even He ſhall by Me. John vi. 50, 51.

I.

WE join to ſing the Saviour's Name,
That ſpread this heav'nly Feaſt
The Bread deſcending from above,
He bids Us freely taſte.

II.

" My Fleſh (He cries) is Meat indeed,
My Blood is Drink divine;
Here with delight the Hungry feed,
And taſte reviving Wine."

III. T

III.

ius Jeſus graciouſly beſtows
The Purchaſe of his Blood;
id cheers his Saints and Foll'wers now,
With this immortal Food.

IV.

is wond'rous Pity here we view,
And triumph in his Grace;
it We ſhall Joys ſublimer know,
And ſee Him Face to Face.

LXVI. Chriſt Jeſus evidently ſet forth crucify'd amongſt us. Gal. iii. 1.

I.

N Mem'ry of our dying Lord,
We take the ſacred Bread and Wine;
id thankfully his Grace record,
ow bright his Love and Mercy ſhine!

II.

lively Figures here We ſee ie crucify'd Redeemer's Face, ipiring on the curſed Tree,
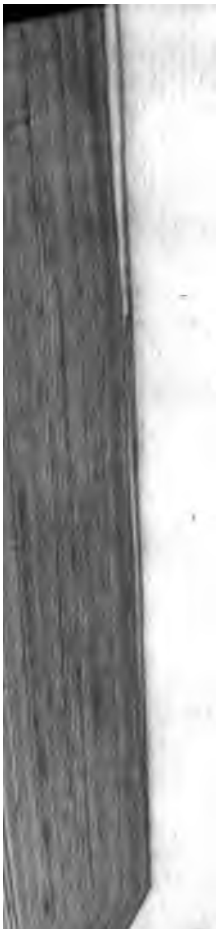
o ranſom our apoſtate Race.

III. Sinners



III.

Sinners to ſave from end
The Wrath divine He ſ
The Law's dread Curſe
At once diſarming Sin ar

IV

Here Jeſus all his Grace
And makes his brighteſt
To Him each Saint glad
And triumphs in his Cr

CXXVII. To Him that
Us from our Sins in
Rev. v. 9, 10.

I.

COME let our Hearts
To ſing the Saviou
Love ſo tranſcendent an Demands the Har

II

The bleſt Redeemer, P
Pays his expiring
T' obtain for Sinners a
From everlaſting I

III.

See boundleſs Grace and Mercy ſhine,
With Beams divinely bright;
While Jeſus on his Croſs reclin'd,
Meets our admiring Sight!

IV.

Thus He redeems Us by his Blood,
He makes Us Kings and Prieſts;
To our great Father and our God,
His Name be ever bleſt!

CXXVIII. Father if it be poſſible let this Cup paſs from Me. Luke xxii. 42—44.

I.

LO what an awful Sight appears!
God's only Son o'erwhelm'd in Tears!
See where in Grief He proſtrate lies,
Pouring to Heav'n his Groans and Cries!

II.

His Fleſh the bloody Sweat o'erflows,
Extorted by unnumber'd Woes;
E'er yet He had reſign'd his Breath,
"His Soul is ſorrowful to Death."

III. Hark!

III.

Hark! while extended on the Ground,
What Cries, what loud Laments reſound
" Father remove this bitter Cup,
" E'er I the Dregs of Woe drink up.

IV.

" If ſtill it may not paſs away,
" Lo, I thy juſt Decree obey;
" Proſtrate I fall before thy Throne,
" Father thy Sov'reign Will be done."

V.

May thy bright Pattern gracious Lord,
Be deep impreſt upon our Mind;
And to our heav'nly Father's Will,
Let ev'ry Paſſion be reſign'd.

CXXIX. Thou art worthy, for thou waſt [illegible] and haſt redeemed Us to God by thy Blood, Rev. v. 9.

I.

WITH Angels join t' adore the Name
Of Him that bled and dy'd;
And all his boundleſs Grace proclaim,
Who Juſtice ſatisfy'd.

II.

at Sorrows and what ſmarting pain,
With Agonies unknown,
: bleſt Redeemer once ſuſtain'd,
For Crimes, but not his own!

III.

Blood, the Balm for all our Grief,
The mourning Sinner's Eaſe;
Blood alone is our Relief,
And Man from Vengeance frees.

IV.

Saints extol the heav'nly Lamb,
Who yielded up his Breath,
free Us from the Wrath divine,
And everlaſting Death.

V.

, when ſhall We that Saviour ſee, Whom here by Faith We love; d praiſe Him to Eternity,
Around his Throne above!

CXXX. Bene-

CXXX. Benefits flowing to Sinners from Death of Chriſt. Rom. v. 10, 11.

I.

YE Saints with Awe and with Delight,
Come meditate this wondrous Sight;
Behold by Faith your dying Lord!
And let his Name be ſtill ador'd.

II.

His unexampled Pity view,
Who bled, and groan'd, and dy'd for You
Behold with Wonder and Surpriſe,
The great atoning Sacrifice!

III.

See Mercy's inexhauſted Tide,
Guſhing from Jeſus' wounded Side;
To Heirs of Miſery and Woe,
Here Pardon and Salvation flow.

IV.

High Praiſes to the dying Lamb,
Let Heav'n reſound his glorious Name;
Who Sinners reconcil'd to God,
By offering up his vital Blood!

XXI. Him having not ſeen Ye love. 2 Cor. v. 14.

I.

'ESUS, thy moſt adored Name
Doth ev'ry Heart with Joy inflame;
:h grace to Sinners freely ſhown, ıdles an Ardor like thy own.

II.

! may the Flame of Love divine
l with increaſing Vigor ſhine;
growing energy impart,
ll Jeſus reign in ev'ry Heart!

III.

w bright enthron'd the Saviour ſee
)wned with Rays of Majeſty!
Him our Thoughts with rapture ſoar,
d humbly tho' unſeen adore.

CXXXII. This do in Remembrance of ME. 1 Cor. xi. 24.

I.

THE kind Redeemer Us invites,
To meet around his Board;
That We may taſte the rich Delights,
His Bounty doth afford.

II.

"This is my Body broke for You,
(The ſuff'ring Saviour cries)
With holy Admiration view
Th' atoning Sacrifice.

III.

"For Many ſhall my Blood be ſhed,
Remiſſion to obtain;
And they to Life divine reſtor'd,
With Me for ever reign.

IV.

Jeſus! may thy redeeming Love,
Be grav'd on ev'ry Heart!
'Till We ſhall reach the Worlds above,
Nor ever thence depart!

XXXIII. The Variety of Chriſt's Sufferings. Matt. xxvii. 29.

I.

ʳE Saints behold the matchleſs Grace,
Which Jeſus here diſplays!
ho to redeem our fallen Race,
His Life a Ranſom pays.

II.

: on his Head the Crown of Thorns Infix each pointed Dart!
ıat Head which Glory now adorns,
Once felt ſuch piercing Smart.

III.

s Hands the rugged Irons tear,
And pierce his ſacred Feet;
s Side endures the murd'rous Spear,
To make his Woes complete.

IV.

:pos'd to cruel Mock'ries too,
The bleſt Redeemer ſee;
hile Inſults loud from ſcoffing Lips,
Reproach his Agony.

V.

Thus all in Pangs of Grief unknown
Jeſus the Saviour dies;
And thus He human Guilt atones,
By his own Sacrifice.

CXXXIV. Chriſt crucified the Nour our Souls. John vi. 54, 55

I.

NOW let the Saviour's Name be l
Who call us to this heav'nly Fe
The Feaſt of his redeeming Love,
To fit our Souls for Joys above.

II.

Here Saints with Admiration ſee
The Wonders of his Agony;
His boundleſs Mercy here We own,
And triumph in his Croſs alone.

III.

The Comforts which his Grace impa
Cheer and revive our fainting Heart
Joyful We at the Banquet feed,
And find 'tis "Nouriſhment indeed.

CXXXV.

CXXV. Gratitude for Redemption. 1 Cor. xi. 25, 26.

I.

HOW ſhall a mortal Tongue,
Speak Jeſus' Love divine?
His Theme demands an Angel's Song,
While Saints with Rapture join.

II.

To ſing the heav'nly Lamb,
That once for Sinners ſlain;
His own Death our Foes o'ercame,
That We with Him might reign.

III.

In honour of our Lord
We keep this ſacred Feaſt;
The dying Saviour hath prepar'd
For ev'ry welcome Gueſt.

IV.

Here We his Name record,
And call his Grace to Mind;
Who to redeem our Souls from Death,
His Life for Us reſign'd.

V.

While We thoſe Sorrows ſee,
That Juſtice did atone;
In Thankfulneſs We bow the Knee
Before his gracious Throne.

CXXXVI. Divine Compaſſion manifeſted in the Death of Chriſt. Rom. v. 8.

I.

WHAT Pity and what wond'rous Grace
At once in Jeſus' Breaſt combin'd!
When to redeem our fallen Race,
Th' almighty Saviour inclin'd.

II.

With Guilt o'erwhelm'd, o'erwhelm'd in Woe
He ſaw Us wretched Sinners lie:
His ſacred Head to Death he bow'd,
To raiſe Us from our Miſery.

III.

Down to the dark, the ſilent Grave,
Behold incarnate Love deſcend!
That We might thence Redemption have,
And to immortal Bliſs aſcend.

IV. Oh!

IV.

nay that Grace inſpire our Breaſt, unes the heav'nly Harps above!
g like Thoſe amongſt the Bleſt,
nd his redeeming Love.

XVII. Chriſtian Fellowſhip at the Lord's pper. Luke xxii. 19. 1 Cor. xi. 26.

I.

celebrate the Saviour's Name
Let all his Saints agree;
oyful round his Table meet,
n ſacred Harmony.

II.

Mem'ry of your bleeding Lord,
Do this," (the Saviour cries)
ver be his Name ador'd,
Who for our Ranſom dies.

III.

cognize his matchleſs Love,
Whilſt Bread and Wine We taſte;
ntedate the Joys above,
n this delightful Feaſt.

IV. Here

IV.

Here We with Admiration view
The Wonders of his Grace;
But we ſhall Joys ſublimer know,
And ſee him Face to Face.

V.

Delightful Hopes We entertain,
(His Promiſe gave Them Birth)
That We ſhall meet our Lord again,
And reign upon the Earth.

CXXXVIII. He that eateth Me, even he, ſhall live by Me. John vi. 57.

I.

WHILE Jeſus' Love inflames our Hear
What Evil can our Souls annoy?
This Life and Peace unknown imparts,
And introduces heav'nly Joy.

II.

The Entertainment moſt divine,
That cheers redeemed Saints above;
Tranſcending far the nobleſt Wine,
Is the rich Cordial of thy Love.

III.

III.

this Repaſt while here below,
:s, thy faithful Foll'wers live;
l far ſublimer Pleaſures know,
ın the Delights of Senſe can give.

IV.

Angels and let Saints proclaim : Glories of the dying Lamb;
o waſh'd Us Sinners in his Blood,
l made Us Kings and Prieſts to God.

FINIS.

INDEX.

Song of Praiſe.

A.

ABEL's Blood cries for Vengeance 8
Abraham, God's Promiſe to Him — 89
——— The Meſſiah born of his Seed 1
Adam, the Effects of his Fall remov'd by Chriſt 44
Admiration at the Love of Chriſt 35, 132
Advocate, Chriſt is ours — 86
Agony in the Garden — 128
Afflictions, their happy Influence — 97
Altar of God — — 84
Angels celebrate Chriſt's Birth — 47
Apoſtacy of Man from God — 29
Apoſtates final, their Doom — 69
Ark (Noah's) typical of our Salvation 34
Arms of Chriſt, Infants receiv'd into Them 33

Aſcenſion

Ascension of our Lord — 31, 32
Assurance of Faith — 76

B.

Baca's Vale — 84
Balm for wounded Souls — 129
Banquet of the Lord's Supper — 134
Baptism — 32, 34
Believe and be saved — 11, 45
Birth of Christ — 1
—— Celebrated by Angels — 47
Blessing Christ bestows on Infants — 33
Blindness of Sinners to the Gospel — 5, 65
—— Judicial — 67
Blood of Christ procures our pardon — 8
Book of Life — 94
Bondage of Sin, deliverance from — 78
Bread of Life — 113, 125
Brethren of Christ — 64

C.

Call and Invitation of Christ — 28
Care and Providence of God over his People — 22
Characters ascrib'd to the Redeemer — 55, 86 Children

INDEX.

Song of Praise.

ldren Objects of his Love and Care 33
ist's Incarnation — 1, 17 —— Sufferings and Death — 54
—— Resurrection — 3
—— Ascension and Exaltation — 37
—— Coming to Judgment — 74, 82
istian Fellowship — 137
rch implores Christ's Presence — 51 fort under the Loss of Christian Friends 61, 73
ing to Christ — — 72
passion of our Redeemer — 1, 59, 97
munion with God most desirable 84 quest over Death — — 36, 37
science purified by Faith — 34
solation under Sufferings — 101
straining Influence of Christ's Love 63
tinuance in Sin deprecated — 53 version by the Gospel — 11, 57
enant with Abraham — 89
ation celebrated — 20, 22, 24
wns of Glory reserved for Christ's Followers 73
cifiers of Christ prayed for — 62

INDEX.

D.

Songs of Praise.

Darkneſs and Imperfection of the preſent State 60
Darkneſs of the Underſtanding — 65
Day of Mercy — 46
Dead in the Lord their Bleſſedneſs — 61
Death conquered — 3, 106
Death of Chriſt, redemption thereby — 124
Decree of God accompliſhed — 78
Defence of the Goſpel — 101
Deliverance from Sin — 28
Deſign of Chriſt's coming, &c. — 45
Deſpiſers of the Law and Goſpel — 99
Diſciples aſſembled — 121
Diſſolution of the Body — 95
Dwelling with Chriſt — 83

E.

Earth crowned with God's Goodneſs 111
Eclipſe of the Sun at the Death of Chriſt 115
Election — — 72
Embaſſadors of Chriſt — 18
End of Apoſtates — — 69
Enemies to God reconciled — 43
Enemies, Chriſt prays for — 62

INDEX.

Songs of Praiſe.

, the Rule of — 81
l Life promiſed — 12
——— its antepaſt — 137
tion of Chriſt to his Throne — 17 nce of our Redeemer — 52
ence — — 97

F.

ng Souls revived — 134
in Chriſt — — 45
in Things unſeen — 75
nd Recovery by Chriſt — 29
diſpelled — — 36
f the Lord's Supper — 125
ſhip with Chriſt and one another 137
ſs of Chriſt's Diſciples — 72
ed, our Redemption — 114
born, Jeſus is — 90
ing Chriſt — — 91

G.

n, Chriſt's Agony therein — 128
beſtowed by our Redeemer — 98
of God in Creation — 20, 22, 24

Glory

INDEX.

Songs of I

Glory of God displayed in Christ
Glory (Future) of the Saints 17, 7
Glorying in the Croſs of Christ —
God the Saints happineſs —
God manifeſt in the Fleſh —
Goodneſs of God celebrated —
Goſpel, Commiſſion to preach it —
Gratitude for Redemption —
Guilt, all involved therein 108

H.

Happineſs in God alone —
Harveſt-moſt glorious-deſcribed —
Head, Chriſt of all his Saints —
Heaven, the Saints Portion — 7, 70, 7
Heavens diſplay the Glory of God 2
Heirs of Glory — —
High Prieſt is Chriſt —
Hope of the Chriſtian —
——— fixed on Heaven —
Hoſanna to the Lamb that was ſlain
Houſe of God the Saints delight —
Hypocriſy and Pride condemned —
Hungry fed — —

Humil

INDEX.

Song of Praise.

'iation and Exaltation of Chriſt — 66

I.

foretells Unbelief of the Jews — 67
the Object of the Saints Love — 52, 77 of God diſplayed in Him — 90
uel's Grace — — 99
itence its awful Doom — 45
ation of Chriſt — 1, 47, 71
ity of the preſent State — 60
ſſion of Chriſt in Heaven — 56
tion to the weary and heavy laden 28
—— to the Lord's Supper — 132
Repentance granted to — 98 tes wounded and cured — 109
nent (raſh) condemned — 93
nent Seat of Chriſt — 27, 74
e reconciled by Chriſt's Death — 120 cation unattainable by the Law 42

K.

f Death and Hell in the Hands of
iſt — — 88
(The) of Glory — 112
om of God — — 21

INDEX.

Song of P
Kings and Priests, Christians so constituted
Knowledge of Christ —

L.

Law of God condemns Sin —
Law of Equity — —
Legacy of Christ to his Disciples —
Life everlasting in the Gospel —
—— Christ our Life —
Light of the Sun of Righteousness —
Likeness of Christ in his Saints —
Looking to Jesus —
Lord's Day — — 3
Lord's Supper —
Love to Christ's Disciples —
Love of God supreme —

M.

Manna, Israelites fed with —
Mankind under Condemnation — 4
Mansions prepared for Saints above —
Meetness for Heaven —
Mercy sought for — — —— Discovered in the Gospel —

INDEX.

Song of Praise.

y-Seat — — 29
cles of Christ — 4, 14, 67
r lifts up the brazen Servant — 109 doom of such as despised his Law 99 ing of Christ's Resurrection — 88 l Law — — 41
ry of Godliness — 47

N

es written in the Book of Life — 94
vity of Christ — 1, 17
bbor, the Love of — 41
Covenant by Christ — 99
's Salvation in the Ark — 34

O.

ience to the Law imperfect — 42
ience to Christ, promises made to 92 ations to Holiness — 53
nances of God, delight in — 84

P.

's Commission to preach the Gospel 11
e with God — — 34

INDEX.

| | Song of Praise. |
|---|---|
| Sin acknowledged before God — | 42 |
| Sin and Death deſtroyed — | 44 |
| Sinners impenitent, their Doom — | 99 |
| Sion, its Inhabitant deſcribed — | 112 |
| Song of Praiſe for Redemption — | 35 |
| Sons of God, Saints are by Adoption — | 25 |
| Sorrow allayed by Hope — | 7, 83, 106 |
| Spring diſplays God's Power — | 22 |
| State of Grace — | 78, 97 |
| Stephen, his Death — | 101 |
| Strength from Chriſt — | 86 |
| Submiſſion to God's Will — | 128 |
| Sufferings of Chriſt — | 114, 123 |
| Sun, Moon and Stars, praiſe the Lord | 20, 24, 100 |
| Supper of the Lord, Invitation to — | 132 |
| Supplies from the Throne of Grace — | 1 |

T.

| | |
|---|---|
| Teaching, divine — | 107 |
| Temple of God, delight of Saints — | 84 |
| Temptations reſiſted — — | 92 |
| Tempted, Chriſt's Compaſſion for — | 1 |
| Thief on the Croſs pardoned — | 49 |

Song of Praise.

Thirſting after God — 84
Thomas's doubting reproved — 121
Throne of Grace, Invitation to — 1, 37
Trembling Conſcience pacified — 65
Trouble, Relief under — 15, 83
Trump of God — — 106
Truſt in God — 15

V.

Vanity of earthly Delights — 95
Veil of the Temple rent — 115
Victory, Chriſt's over Death 3, 66, 88
Vine, Chriſt deſcribed thereby — 92
Unbelief, its Guilt and Condemnation 45
Unſeen Saviour rejoiced in — 77
Voice of Chriſt delightful to Saints — 91

W.

Wants (ſpiritual) relieved — 59
Way, Chriſt is to the Father — 55, 86
Weary and heavy-laden addreſs'd — 28
Word of Chriſt to be reverenced — 91
World, crucifixion to it. — 117

Works

INDEX.

Song of I
Works of God in Creation 20, 22, 24,
Works of Saints follow Them —
Wrath of the Lamb —

Y.
Yoke of Christ recommended —